

the war. He entered the service as an aid on the staff of General McDowell; was appointed a brigadier general in 1861; served as Military Governor of Washington;...

Brigadier General Bartlett was a veteran of all the battles of the Army of the Potomac, and at the outbreak of the war a lawyer in Birmingham, New York. A gallant deed crowned a most honorable career.

Light General Grant is only forty-two years old. He was born April 27, 1822.

Varieties. Eight colored schools have now been in operation in New Orleans about nine months. There are now 1,800 pupils, and most of them have made progress that is very satisfactory.

Church Writ in New-England--Rev. Dr. Holbrook writes to the Gen. Franchise Committee: "I had no conception of the astonishing wealth of New-England until I had occasion and the opportunity to ascertain the fact. The number of members of Congregational churches who are worth from $100,000 to $1,000,000 is not an incredible, while you may make return to Government from the annual income of from $30,000 to $100,000! There is one church in a country village in Massachusetts that is said to represent seven millions of property, and another that owns as much as the cities."

Hawaiian Dictionary--The publication of Andrews' Hawaiian Dictionary has been commenced. It will appear in large octavo form, and contain from five to six hundred pages. It is gratifying to learn what missionaries are doing in other parts of the world. The great Hawaiian Dictionary of India, by Dr. Winslow, the American missionary, has just made its appearance. It contains no less than 68,000 words. From the South Seas we learn that a Dictionary of the language of Western Polynesia, including the New Hebrides, has been commenced by the Rev. Mr. Geddie, the missionary from Nova Scotia.

American Tract Society--Results of the Year. Receipts: Donations and Legacies, $116,158.85; cash sales, $24,328.55; total, $140,487.40; being $1,687.24 more than the receipts of the previous year. Grants of publications, 109,407,085 pages, value $72,981, exceeding the grants of any previous year by 80,000,000 pages, and of these the last year by 60,000,000 pages. These 18,856,715 were delivered to 1,400,000 persons, and of these 50,783,064 copies, double the amount of any previous year, to the army and navy. In 1863 appropriations, 10,000; new publications, 179; printed during the year, 1,341,802 volumes, 11,066,384 publications; periodicals, over 600,000 copies monthly; colporteurs 133, who have labored in nearly all the States; army missionaries 17, who have labored in the most gratifying results in the Army of the Potomac, in the Army of the Cumberland, and in the Army of the Mississippi.

U. S. Christian Commission. The Army Committee of Western Pennsylvania reports the following report of its operations for the month of April: Four delegates have been sent to the Army of the Potomac: Rev. Richard Lee, Lawrenceville; Rev. A. C. McCallister, Philadelphia; Rev. D. W. Carson, Meadville; and Rev. J. D. McCune, Mercer County, Pa.

Table with 2 columns: Name of organization and Amount contributed. Includes entries for Iron City, Pa., Anonym., Citizens of New York, Rev. J. S. Grimes, etc.

Receipts of month, $3,858.00. Previously acknowledged, $7,198.36. Total to May 1st, 1864, $80,888.36. The following contributions of stores have been received during the month of April: One box of hospital stores and one box of food from Ladies' Aid Society of New Greenfield, Mercer county; 2 baskets of fruit from Mrs. R. F. Kennedy; 2 boxes of hospital stores from Ladies' Aid Society of Erie, Pa.; 1 box of hospital stores from Aid Society of District No. 2, Darlington township, Beaver county; 1 box of hospital stores from Ladies' Aid Society of Washington, Mercer county; 1 box of hospital stores from Ladies' Aid Society of Wayne township, Lawrence county; 1 box of clothing from Central Presbyterian church of Allegheny City; 1 box of clothing from Ladies' Aid Society of Allegheny county; 2 boxes and 1 barrel of hospital stores from Ladies' Aid Society of Pennsylvania; 1 box of food from F. M. Scott, Middle Lanesport, Butler county; 3 boxes of fruit and 1 do. of clothing from Ladies' Aid Society of Allegheny county; 1 box of hospital stores from Ladies' Aid Society of Washington, Armstrong county; 1 box of hospital stores from Ladies' Aid Society of Washington, Allegheny county; 1 box of clothing, 1 box of butter, 1 do. of fruit, 1 do. of onions from Ladies' Aid Society of Mahoning, Lawrence county; 1 box hospital stores from Ladies' Aid Society, Butler county; 1 box clothing from Ladies' Aid Society of Neweastle, Lawrence county; 1 box hospital stores from Ladies' Aid Society of Blaineville, Pa.; 3 boxes hospital stores from Ladies' branch Christian Commission, Allegheny county; 1 do. egg, 1 do. butter, 1 do. cheese from Ladies' Aid Society of New York, Allegheny county; 2 boxes and 1 barrel of hospital stores from Ladies' Aid Society of Texas and Lykens, Crawford county; 1 box of hospital stores from Soldiers' Aid Society of Amity and Ebenezer churches; 1 box of hospital stores from Ladies of Washington, Presbyterian church of Burns, Mercer county; package from Children's Aid Society of Allegheny county; 1 box of clothing from Soldiers' Aid Society of Kilmersburg; 1 box of clothing from Soldiers' Aid Society of Allegheny county; 1 package of clothing from Lutheran church, Pittsburgh; 1 box of butter from Third ward of Ladies' Aid Society of Beaver, Beaver county; 1 box of vegetables from Mrs. M. Walker, Pa.

The Army Committee would appeal for hospital stores of every description, to be in readiness for any urgent demand that may be made on them. Articles of clothing, fruit, wine, liquors, are especially needed. Send contributions to W. P. Weyman, No. 75 Smithfield Street, or to Joseph Albree, No. 70 Wood Street, Pittsburgh.

Current News.

The War. The last two weeks have been, without doubt, the most eventful of the war thus far--have witnessed the fiercest struggles of the contest, and the victories which promise most for the final and speedy suppression of the rebellion. It may be well to notice, consequently, the movements of the Army of the Potomac, and the operations of Gen. Grant, which had so often advanced hopefully against the enemy, fought courageously, and endured heroically, only to be disappointed signally, once more resumed the "onward" march on Monday, May 24, under a new and hitherto successful leader, and on Tuesday and Wednesday the entire army of 125,000 men crossed the Rapidan, and encamped in close proximity to their old antagonists. On Thursday, May 26th, General Meade, who had the march, was attacked by Lee, somewhat to the west of the old battle of Chancellorsville, in the district commonly designated as the "Wilderness." Our columns were again in battle line, and the enemy met his first repulse. On this day Gen. Grant, who had retired in the night, but characteristically advanced again, and was soon involved in a fierce struggle from which the rebels retired, driven from all their positions. Some time was devoted to the strengthening of our lines, and driving our forces in the most advantageous way, when, on Friday morning, May 31st, the army was again attacked at different points of our front in a desperate, but repulsed, battle. The result was, in our favor, and the enemy was driven from all their positions, and the army was again in a position to advance. On Saturday, June 4th, the army was again in a position to advance, and on Sunday morning, June 6th, the army was again in a position to advance, and on Monday morning, June 6th, the army was again in
