

Karen Knight and Mark Herman

Knight & Herman for this month

Karen Knight and Mark Herman are Students of the Month at Riverview Elementary School.

Karen is polite, takes care of the fish at home, and helps her mother by drying dishes. She plays fair in jump rope, doesn't run in the halls, lie or pick fights. She cleans her room 3 times a week and works hard in school.

Mark hands in assignments on time, respects adults, and dresses neatly. He is a reliable member of the safety patrol, and is always on time. He takes good care of his parakeet, picks up trash in the park, and breaks up fights. He also cleans his bedroom, does the dishes and takes good care of his bike.

Births

Mr. and Mrs. George Grube, (Phyllis Ford) 35B West Donegal Street, Mount Joy, a daughter in St. Joseph's Hospital, Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. N. Parke Miller, (Ann Wenger) Mount Joy R.D.#1, a daughter, at General Hospital Friday.

Mr. and Mrs. Elmo Marbury, (Marcene Wilson) 34 North Gay Street, Marietta, a daughter at St. Joseph's Hospital, Monday.

"Toddler Topics" available

A series of educational packets called "Toddler Topics" will be published by the Lancaster County Extension Service beginning in February.

The topics give information to the Young Homemaker about children's fantasies, gift giving, language development, emergencies, selecting books for children and making your own baby food. A special feature will be "Rain or Sun" activities which involve parent and child.

"Toddler Topics" will be sent free upon request. To be placed on the mailing list, contact the Lancaster County Extension Service, Room 1, 1383 Arcadia Road, Lancaster, PA 17601. Phone 394-6851.

Class planned in lipreading

A course in lipreading will be offered soon by The Hearing Conservation Center.

Lipreading skills may be used by any person who has any degree of hearing loss, whether they use a hearing aid, or not, to improve their understanding of conversation.

The 8 week course will begin Tuesday, January 27, 1976 at The Hearing Conservation Center in Lancaster. Class time is 7 p.m. and dismissal time is 8:30 p.m. Classes are limited in size.

Interested persons may reserve a spot in the class by calling The Hearing Conservation Center at 397-4741. Additional information about the class may also be obtained at that number.

The council turned down a request from Witmer-McCoy for action on that company's proposed building complex at the intersections of S. Market Ave., Angle St. and Donegal Springs Road.

Council will study the revised plans submitted by Witmer-McCoy, and may vote on the plans at next month's meeting.

Council hopes a meeting among residents, developers and council can be arranged to organize a runoff control plan.

The Union National Bank was selected as depository for two years with William Eby as treasurer.

Barley, Snyder, Cooper and Barber were retained as borough solicitors. D.C. Gohn Associates will be borough engineers.

Appointments to boards and commissions were: secretary- zoning officer- Joe Bateman; planning commission- Reuben Goodling and Gene Bender; hearing board - Albert Kleiner and Joseph Dolan; authority- Paris Sweigart.

Council will continue to meet the second Monday of each month at the Borough Offices Building, Main St., at 7:30 p.m..

The Zoning Hearing Board will hear an appeal of Robert Kline on Weds., at 8 p.m., at the borough offices.

Robert Kline will appeal the revocation of his building permit for pigeon coops

...Gloria

The biggest advantage to being Miss Lancaster is the scholarship money and gifts that come with the job. Gloria is also paid for her appearances.

Also, Gloria says, "Just meeting all the people I've met is an advantage."

Gloria meets so many people, she has trouble remembering them all.

"When I go places, people sometimes stare at me," Gloria says. "I don't know if they know me from the newspapers or someplace else. It's really funny sometimes."

People Gloria doesn't recognize walk up to her and say, "Hi. How are you doing? How's school?"
