

Mrs. Harold McKain heads Pioneer ladies

by Hazel Baker

Mrs. Harold McKain has been elected president of the Marietta Pioneer Fire Company Auxillary.

Mrs. McKain, the mother of two daughters, was a vice-president of the same organization and is an active member of the United Church of Christ and the Women's Guild, Marietta.

She hopes for a good year with the auxillary and urges cooperation with the members.

The auxillary's function is to support the firemen in the debt of the new building and to assist them in the various ways that arise for the volunteers, Mrs. McKain emphasizes.

The public is invited to join the group which meets the first Tuesday of each month at 7:30 PM in the Fire Company building, Waterford Avenue.

Art display at library

by Emmy Lou Foley

Mr. Richard Houck, Mount Joy, is displaying some of his art work at the Mount Joy Library during the month of January. He has been drawing with pencil for 21 years and uses other implements. He is an art instructor at the Ephrata High School. Mr. Houck also displays at the Lancaster Community Gallery, Lancaster City Schools, and Reider College.

Maytown parents to hear Lawrence

Mr. James Lawrence, principal of Maytown Elementary School, will speak at the Parents and Teachers in Partnership meeting this Thursday night.

This meeting was originally scheduled for last Thursday, the 14th, but was postponed because of snow.

The major topics of the discussion will be the present curriculum and policies of the school and projected changes. Mr Lawrence also hopes to get some new ideas from the discussion, and urges everyone to attend.

The meeting will be held in the school cafeteria at 7 p.m. Refreshments will be served.

'Town meeting' in Elizabethtown

The Elizabethtown Chamber of Commerce is going to kick off the bicentennial year with a unique "town meeting" for area residents Saturday evening, January 24, at 7 p.m. in the Elizabethtown High School auditorium

There will be free admission, free refreshments, free mementoes, and numerous displays of historical industrial artifacts, paintings, church memorabilia, etc.

The High School band and the College chorus will join for a musical program. A nationally known speaker will give a short talk on the principles upon which this nation was founded.

Deb Cobaugh of Bainbridge designed the placards distributed throughout Elizabethtown to announce the town meeting.

The public is urged to attend.

MYAA elects officers

by Hazel Baker

Officers were named for the '76 term of the Marietta Youth Athletic Association Thursday night in the Marietta Community House. They are: William Miller, president; Jerry Cranford, vice-president; Winnie Bensinger, secretary; and Emma Penwell, treasurer.

The president appointed these committees:

Property-Mervin Gutshall; membership-Jerry Cranford; picture-William Yohe; picnic-Mervin Gutshall and Frances Cranford; insurance-Mervin Gutshall and Jerry Cranford; tournament-Mervin Gutshall, Winnie Bensinger, and Clyde Butz; and registration-John Anderson, Glen Shank, and Winnie Bensinger.

The registration fee is $2 which includes a hat and insurance for each player. The group will cooperate with scout groups so as not to duplicate meetings. The next meeting of the group will be February 12, at 7:30 p.m., in the Community House.

This is the second term for William Miller as president of the above organization. He is the father of three children and is married to the former Anna Funkand. He has been an employee of Wyeth for 18 years where he serves as a mechanic.

The Marietta High School graduate played baseball and basketball and was sports editor of the "Spotlight," the school newspaper. He also contributed sports news to the former Marietta Times. While in the U.S. Army from 1948 to 1952, Miller participated in his favorite sports of baseball and basketball. He played County league ball on the Marietta team and basketball with the "Hill-toppers". He served as president of the Wyeth bowling and Marietta Recreation Association, was Democratic committeeman for 10 years and a member of the county executive Democratic committee for 7 years. A former member of the Jaycees, he is currently a member of the Mount Joy American Legion, Wyeth Tennis League, president of the Marietta Alumni Association and coach of the MYAA traveling midget team.
