

Larry Bradley wins scout award

Larry R. Bradley, son of Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth R. Bradley, R.D. #4 (Master-sonville), Manheim, and a member of Lancaster-Lebanon Council, Boy Scouts of America, Troop 10, Master-sonville, will receive the God and Country Award on Sunday, February 1, 1976, at Lawn Evangelical Congregational Church, Lawn. The Rev. Kenneth R. Maurer will present the award to him at the 10:30 a.m. service.

Larry, 14, has been a scout for three years. He holds the rank of Star Scout with nine skill awards and Mrs. Donald Yoder, secretary of the M.J.T.C.C.C., said, "We got a lot of generalities." They may consider legal action against the proposal if it moves ahead as planned. David Stapler, a member of the Committee, noted, "It's still fairly early yet. They won't get this project going for a couple of years".
