DID YOU HEAR....

Hiram Mayers of Maytown celebrated his 70th birthday on January 20th. On the same day his neighbor, Jonathan Swab, celebrated his 11th birthday. We don't know what the Birthday Fairy brought Hiram, but we heard that it brought Jonathan a calculator.

Family & Children's Service marks 10th year

To mark the 10th Anniversary of the Family & Children's Service, the local Advisory Committee is holding an "Open House" on Thursday, January 29, at 7:30 p.m., in the Fellowship

Hall of Elizabethtown Church of the Brethren. Everyone is invited. A play, "We, the Family," about four generations in one family searching for their own priorities amidst old principles and new patterns of living, will be presented.

After the play, Rev. Kenneth A. Estep, pastor of Emmanuel Baptist Church and a member of the Advisory Committee, will lead the audience in a brief discussion of the significance of what the actors were saying.

Mrs. Emily Mast and William G. Leino, F&CS staff members assigned to the branch office two days a week, briefly will explain their work and how they can be of further service in the community.

The branch office, which is located on the second floor of the Commonwealth National Bank building, South Market Street, Elizabethtown, is open on Tuesday and Thursday of each week.

Family-oriented counseling is available to discuss problems in personality adjustments, marital relations, parent-child relations, child care and development, social deprivation and situational stress on an informal basis.

In addition to counseling, the agency also provides an adoption service, a consultation service to other organizations, family life education (of which the play for living is a good example), student field-placement training, and a community betterment service, the latter involving community planning and development and family advocacy.

The Advisory Committee includes Kenneth Grosh, Chairman; Rev. Estep, Mrs. Jacob Bechtel, Mrs. Ronald good, Richard C. Lytle, Ms. Barbara Martin, Mrs. John W. Steelman, Mrs. Thomas Needham, Mrs. Gerald H. Risser, and Miss Ella Witherow.
