

Joe Shaeffer heads Leisure Club

by Joe Shaeffer

The Mount Joy Leisure Club met at Hostetters, Monday, January 12 with 106 members and guests present. President Joe Shaeffer officiated and after the pledge of allegiance to the flag, cake and coffee were served.

Following the dessert the business meeting began with the secretary's report by Nedra Brandt and the treasurer's report by Kathryn Zink. George Groff reporting on Community Council, stated no more meetings would be held by this organization because of lack of interest and difficulty in getting people to serve as officers. Mr. Groff reported that the Community Council would continue to sponsor various programs in the community.

Mrs. Elizabeth Hassinger of the Sunshine Committee reported that 18 Ideal Magazines were sent to the shut-ins. Chairman of the Sunshine Committee for the months of January, February, and March will be Mrs. Lena Eshleman.

The following new members were introduced: Viola Anderson, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hostetter, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Saltzer, Mr. and Mrs. Irvin Ginder, and Kathryn Shearer. One quest was present, Mr. Irving LeVin.

Birthday and anniversary songs were sung to those celebrating birthdays or anniversaries in December and January. Under old business, President Shaeffer announced that the book titled "Benefits and Rights of Older Pennsylvanians" and the sheets from the Office of the Aging are still available.

There being no other old business, President Shaeffer turned the meeting over to Mrs. George Groff, Chairlady of the Nominating Committee. Mrs. Groff presented the following slate, President, Joe Shaeffer; First Vice-President, Clark Sheldon; Secretary, Nedra Brandt; Asst. Secretary, Anna Zerphey; Treasurer, Kathryn Zink; Asst. Treasurer, John Brown; Recording Secretary, Clinton Eby; and Asst. Recording Secretary, Mrs. Maude Frey. Mrs. Groff called for other nominations; there being none, the nominees presented by her were elected to office.

President Shaeffer spoke on several item of interest to senior citizens. At the present time no bus trips are being planned. The following were named hostesses for February: Kathryn Zink, Edna Wolgemuth, Sara Zimmerman, Anna Zerphey Fanny Zeager, Melba Zink, Minnie Tucker, and Nellie Vogel.

There being no further business, the meeting adjourned and President Shaeffer introduced Mr. Lester Hostetter, Trust Officer of the Union National Bank, who spoke on "Wills and Estates" and then opened the meeting for questions and answers.

The next meeting at Hostetters will be February 9 and will begin at 12 noon. Members are urged to come at that time.

The Leisure Club will be stuffing envelopes for the Mount Joy Library.
