

CHOICE BITS

Just Thinking

Today is your day, and mine—the only day we have is the day in which we play our part. What our part may signify in the great whole we may not understand, but we are here to play it, and now is our time.

How may we be of service to you?

Melody Mumma

Holly Baker, Melody Mumma to represent DHS at band fest

by Hazel Baker

Melody Mumma and Holly Baker will represent Donegal High School at the Lower Southern District Band Festival sponsored by the Pennsylvania Music Educators Association. The event will be held at the Elizabethtown Area High School from January 29 to 31.

About 150 students, chosen by audition from 33 high schools in Lancaster, York, and Adams Counties will participate. Otis D. Kit-chen, conductor of the Lancaster Youth Symphony, the Elizabethtown College Band, Stage Band, and various ensembles, and organist-choir director of the St. Paul's United Methodist Church, Lancaster, will direct the musical.

Miss Mumma, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adin Mumma, 744 W. Main Street, Mount Joy plays flute.

Miss Baker, the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Baker, Fairview Avenue, Marietta, plays baritone saxophone, alto saxophone and piano.

Marietta Chorus practicing for Bicentennial presentation

by Hazel Baker

Members of the Marietta Community Chorus have begun practice for a Bi-centennial musical which will be held next summer.

Rehearsals are held each Sunday at the English United Presbyterian Church under the direction of Mrs. Gerald Libhart, at 7:30 p.m.

Anyone interest in participating in the Bi-centennial musical is urged to come out to the next practice. Singers must be 16 or older.

The group also plans an Easter cantata for which it will rehearse later in the season. Volunteers may participate in both or one event.
