GLOSSBRENNER HOLY COMMUNION
The Sacrament of Holy Communion will be celebrated at Glossbrenner United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, on Sunday, February 1, in the morning worship service at 9:30 a.m. and again at 7:00 p.m. As part of the congregation's bicentennial observance, old glass communion ware used in the early years of this century at the church will be used during the morning service.

Another part of the morning service will be the demonstration of feet washing, once practiced within the congregation and by many Christian groups today. Several members of the Youth Fellowship will enact this meaningful ritual.

Morning worship will also feature an anthem by the Senior Choir, "Simple Gifts," a Shaker hymn; and a vocal duet, "Come, Bless Ye the Lord," sung by Sandy Heisey and Steve Smith.

ST. JOHN'S YOUTH
by David Marley
The youth of St. John's Episcopal Church of Marietta, have been very active the past few months. One of their most recent activities was on December 21. On this night they had a Christmas carol sing in which all of the youth of the church could participate. Afterwards, they went to the church parish for refreshments.

One of their ongoing activities is on Friday nights from 7-9 p.m. They have what is called fun-night. During this time they play games supplied by the church or they can bring their own. This night is sponsored by the youth group for all the youth of the church and their guests.

Another ongoing activity is on Saturday mornings. The youth group is cleaning up the church basement, in hopes of using it for a meeting place sometime in the future. It is proving to be quite a job though because it has been left in its present state since the flood in '72.
