

Discount Registration

Because of confusion and misunderstanding from the new law giving discount registrations to retired motorists, acting Transportation Secretary George S. Pulakos today issued guidelines explaining who is eligible for the reduced fee.

To be eligible a person must:

Be retired and receiving Social Security or other pension. Part-time work is permitted.

Total income from all sources, including Social Security, pension, part-time work, interest and dividends must not exceed $7,500. Income is based on anticipated income for the present year.

If only one spouse of a married couple qualifies, the discount registered vehicle must be registered in his or her name.

If both spouses qualify, they may register a vehicle at the reduced rate.

If the vehicle is jointly owned, (titled in both names), total income of the couple must not exceed $7,500.

Only one vehicle weighing less than 9,000 pounds including cars, station wagons and light trucks may be registered at the discount rate.

Retired persons are not exempt from normal title and transfer fees.

There is no minimum age requirement.

Persons wishing to register a vehicle at the reduced fee should get an application from the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, fill it out, sign it and return it along with their regular registration renewal application to the Bureau of Motor Vehicles. A check for $10 instead of the regular fee should be enclosed.

Applications for the reduced fee are available at the Philadelphia branch office of the Bureau of Motor Vehicles, Roosevelt Blvd. and Southhampton Rd., at the Pittsburgh office, 300 Liberty Ave., or by writing: Bureau of Motor Vehicles, Harrisburg, Pa., 17122.

If you have already sent in your total fee of $24 for the current registration period, you apply for the refund as follows: fill out the MV371 and mark it REFUND, then include a copy of your canceled check both front and back or a copy of the customer's receipt from your money order. Enclose the MV371 and whichever copy you have and return them to your Representative's Harrisburg Office or to:
