STORYTIME STARTED AT CONGREGATIONAL BIBLE CHURCH
by Regina K. Musser

The ladies fellowship of the Congregational Bible Church in Marietta are starting a Storytime on Tuesday, February 3, at the church. Pre-school children from Marietta and neighboring communities are invited to attend.

Storytime will be held weekly on Tuesday mornings from 10:30 to 11:00 in the church nursery. The program is designed especially for three, four, and five year old children. In addition to reading stories, volunteers from the church will be teaching songs and games, and directing crafts. Mothers are welcome to stay or children may be picked up afterwards.

It is hoped that, by attending Storytime, the children will learn to enjoy books and being read to. These two factors will have an early influence in the development of good readers.
