Menonite Relief Sale set for Mar. in Farm Show Bldg.

The Menonite Central Committee's Tri-County Relief Sale for distressed and needy persons throughout the world will be held at the Farm Show building in the state capital of Harrisburg on March 27.

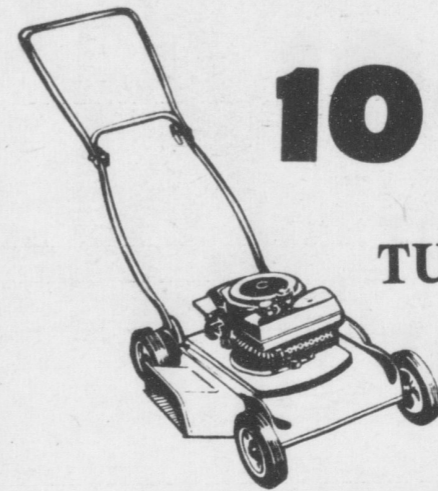

Hand-worked quilts which are the sale's greatest attraction. Purchases come from everywhere, including large metropolitan areas, to bid on the prized creations which are auctioned off.

There is Pennsylvania Dutch food-barbeques, pies, cakes, pastries, all in profusion.

Other items include antiques, machinery, livestock, plants, chinaware, and crafts which represent self-help programs in the U.S. and other countries.

Thousands of people attend the sale, which offers something for everyone. However, it is not a bargain sale. The sponsors, eager to relieve as much suffering in the world as possible, expect buyers to be generous, to give with their hearts as well as their purses. Last year's sale brought $100,000.
