Donegal wrestlers Parents Night includes varied entertainment

by Corky Flick

Friday, January 6, 1976 was designated to be parent's night for the Donegal Wrestlers.

To start off the night all parents were given name tags as they came in. They were then seated in a reserved section of the bleachers.

After the regularly scheduled JV match, there was a special old times match. The Oldtimers were actually alumni from previous Donegal wrestling teams.

Some of the oldtimers were recent graduates from DHS such as Jeff Ruhl, Cary "Tyke" Albright, and Jim Mohr. Gene Mohr was the referee for the match.

As the oldtimers match came to an end, the current wrestlers' parents were asked to move from the gym to the lobby. The parents were then introduced as their sons walked over to greet them and escort them to their seats. All of the mothers who attended were given green and white carnations.

After all the parents were introduced, the cheerleaders were met by the senior wrestlers. The girls also received green and white carnations.

Once all the introductions were made, the Varsity match got under way. The Donegal grapplers choked Cedar Crest with a 55-3 score. The JV team shut out the Cedar Crest JV's 32-0.

Throughout the match, there were 5 pins, the fastest being in 0:36 seconds by George Mohr. Bob Smith was close behind with a pin in 0:47 seconds.

Other pins were scored by Glenn Mull in 2:53, Tim Howell in 1:59, Mike Carroll in 1:32.

Decisions were won by Mark Adams 10-5, Joe Meszaros 6-0, Jerry Garner 11-3, and Clay Brandt, 8-7. Jim Prowell and Bob Bishop obtained forfeits at the 112, and 155 weights, respectively.
