Hess family celebrates 50th

On Sunday, February 16, friends, relatives, and neighbors of a local couple joined with them in celebration of fifty years of wedlock. Mr. and Mrs. Ezra E Hess marked the completion of their fiftieth year this past week on Wednesday the 19th of February although the reception in their honor had been held four days earlier. Sons of the couple, Wilbur, Robert, Leroy, and Ira, and their wives held the surprise reception in honor of their parents at the West Greentree Church of the Brethren. Approximately 125 guests were in attendance.

Mr. Hess has been a farmer all of his life on a farm north of Mount Joy previously operated by his father, the late Ira S. Hess. He is still actively engaged in farming, although his youngest son, Ira, now manages the farm. Mrs. Hess was Martha Auker of Elizabethtown, daughter of the late John and Hettie Auker who had moved into the local area from Juniata County when Mrs. Hess was in her late teens. They were married on February 19, 1925 by the late Rev. Henry K. Ober of Elizabethtown. The couple is now residing near Mount Pleasant Brethren in Christ Church just a bit over a mile from the Hess homestead.
