

Farm Women #8

Farm Women's Society #8 met in the home of Misses Anna Mae and Ruth Eby, Mount Joy, R #1 on February 21. Mrs. Kathryn Heisey, vice-president, presided over the meeting in the absence of the president, Mrs. Grace Bixler.

Miss Anna Mae Eby led the ladies in singing.

Miss Ruth Eby presented the main feature on the program as she gave brief histories of dolls from as early as 1790. Dolls were made of many materials and dressed to represent the inhabitants of the immediate area. Individuals of renown having outstanding collections were mentioned. The Eby sisters showed dolls which they have brought from different places—an Eskimo doll from Alaska, a Gaelic doll from Nova Scotia, a Spanish doll from Mexico, a Chinese doll from Trinidad, a Dutch doll from Holland and Hawaiian and Indian dolls.

Elaborate doll houses were mentioned as being of special interest.

Mrs. Lane, a visitor and a former resident of Mount Joy, showed a copy of the Mary Frances Sewing Book with patterns for doll clothing many years ago. She brought a doll wearing clothing made from these patterns.

Alice Myers had devotional time and read "The Spirit of '76" for the Bicentennial year, as well as "Lincoln in Retrospect," an excerpt from "Lincoln in Prayer."

Twenty-seven members responded to Roll Call with Bible verses. Two visitors were present. Mary Grace Martin read minutes of the January meeting and later played "Prelude" and "Traumerie" by Schumann on the piano.

The Ways and Means committee reported that the bus going to the Spring Rally on May 12 will leave St. Mark's Church, Mount Joy at 9 a.m. Contact Mrs. William Heisey, Mount Joy, R #1 Box 238, phone 426-3311 for further information.

The committee in charge of Centennial proceedings gave special recognition to Mrs. Evelyn Rentzell in the form of a "Bicentennial Certificate of Appreciation" for the blue taffeta dress trimmed with pink lace which she made.

A decision was made to contribute to the Welsh Mountain as a County Project.

Colorful and delicious refreshments were provided by Misses Ruth and Anna Mae Eby, Alice Myers, Mary Shaeffer and Lizzie Keener.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mary Sarver, Mount Joy R.D. There will be a demonstration on quilting by Mrs. Bruce Greiner.

Marietta Aux plans benefit

by Hazel Baker

"Sounds and Spirits of '76", a benefit of the Columbia Hospital sponsored by the Marietta Auxiliary, will be held Saturday, May 8, from 3 to 7 p.m., on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller, 111 Fairview Avenue, Marietta.

The Bicentennial event is in keeping with America's birthday and will have a colonial menu, craft demonstrations, music by Luke Grubb, (assistant professor of music at Millersville State College), a food sale, white elephant table, and bazaar items to suit everyone's taste.

Plans were made at the February meeting of the Auxiliary at the home of Miss Elsie McCloskey. Mrs. Joseph Gilmartin presided at the session and Mrs. William Heisey, chaplain opened the event by reading "Lincoln and Prayer", Valentine readings and "Love Your Life Thru."

The March meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. James Baker and will be a white elephant benefit.
