The Susquehanna Bulletin Church Page will now include the regular schedules of all area churches. It will no longer be necessary for these to be mailed to us on a weekly basis. We do invite churches to send us news items about special programs of community interest for inclusion on the Church Page. Please send all Church News to Susquehanna Bulletin, Box 75A, R. D. 1, Marietta, Pa. 17547. Copy deadline is Friday.

MOUNT JOY COMMUNION PRAYER BREAKFAST
Hazel Baker

The annual Mount Joy Communion Prayer Breakfast will be held at Glossbrenner United Methodist Church Sunday, March 7, at 7 a.m. Speaker for the event will be Edward Bauman, Washington, DC, who will use as his subject, "The Last Supper". All men are invited; tickets are available from individual churches or at the door at $1.50.

FIRST UNITED METHODIST CHURCH

Anniversary Sunday will be observed at the First United Methodist Church, 216 East Market Street, Marietta on Sunday, March 7. The District Superintendent of the Lancaster District, Rev. William Sharp will be the speaker in the Morning Worship Service at 11 a.m. Rev. Sharp is a former pastor at the Bainbridge United Methodist Church and has served churches recently in the Philadelphia area before assuming his present position.

In the evening at 7:30 (March 7) the CHURCHMEN & TERESA will present a Gospel Concert. This singing group from Harrisonburg, VA is well known in this area for their rendition of the old and new Gospel Songs. A free-will offering will be taken for the singing group. The public is cordially invited.

ST. MARK'S TO OBSERVE ASH WEDNESDAY

Ash Wednesday evening Holy Communion will be observed in the sanctuary of St. Mark's United Methodist Church, 27-29 East Main St.; Mount Joy, on March 3. The time from 7:30 to 9:00 p.m. is being set aside for individuals and families to come and commune informally at the alter rail of the church. There will be no order of service as such, but there will be music and devotional materials for meditations. Persons may come and go according to their individual schedules. The Pastors, W. Richard Kohler and Ezra Ranck, will serve the communicants. The Table of the Lord is open to all those who love Him and who come penitently.

On succeeding weeks the Lenten series of services will continue through April 7 at 7:30 p.m. On March 10, Mr. and Mrs. Oester Cramer of Beverly, Kentucky, missionaries who are supported by the local congregation, will share their ministry with the people. From March 17 through April 7 the heritage series, "From These Roots," will focus upon the lives of the pioneers of United Methodism: Martin Boehm, Philip Wm. Otterbein, Susanna Wesley, and Jacob Albright. Participating in these programs will be Rev. Mr. Abe Sangrey, Rev. Mr. W. Richard Kohler, Mrs. Mary Ellen Kohler, and the Maranatha Productions. The community is heartily invited to attend and participate in these and all the activities of St. Mark's Church.

COLLEGE OF BIBLE

The 60-voice CHORALE of Philadelphia College of Bible will appear in a sacred concert at 7 p.m., Sunday, March 14, at Congregational Bible Church, Route 441, Marietta.

CONG. BIBLE FILM

"Queen of the Dark Chamber," a 40-minute color/sound dramatic motion picture, will be shown Sunday night, March 7, at 7 o'clock at Congregational Bible Church, Route 441, Marietta.

The film appeals to viewers of all ages. It is both historical and contemporary. It tells of the life of Christian Tsai, now living at Leaman Place, Pa.; her conversion from Buddhism to Christianity, her sufferings and triumphs during the last days of the Manchu dynasty in China, her trials during World War II and the Communist take-over, and her flight to America.

Her love story, persecution and sacrifice are skillfully woven into an effective missionary challenge. In the history of the church, extraordinary faith has produced extraordinary lives—such is the story of Miss Tsai, author of the best-selling Christian classic, "Queen of the Dark Chamber," on which the film is based.

"Dark Chamber" is descriptive because of Miss Tsai's confinement in a darkened room since she fell victim to malaria of the eyes in 1931. Doctors then gave her only three days to live. She has not only lived, but witnessed victoriously for Jesus Christ since then.

Many Lancaster Countians have visited Miss Tsai in her "dark chamber" in the old Leaman farm house along Route 30 in Leaman Place. This film will be especially meaningful to them.

A freewill offering will be received at the close of the program.

GLOSSBRENNER

World Day of Prayer Service will be held in the Glossbrenner United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, on Friday, March 5 at 7:30 p.m. This is the ninetieth year of the world wide celebration of World Day of Prayer. Highlights of the service include three dramatic dialogues as special features with the Mount Joy Community Chorus providing several musical selections.

This year's service has been prepared by women in Latin America and reflects their concern for "Education for All of Life." This service provides and opportunity for Protestant, Catholic and Orthodox women of many races and languages to demonstrate their unity in Christ and to share in an offering that will bring hope and aid to thousands around the globe.

Here in the United States the offerings go into a fund administered by the Intercontinental Mission Committee of Church Women United. This year funds will be proved for projects in Niger, Malagasy Republic
