Apple Butter Week proclaimed

Mayor James Gingrich has signed a proclamation declaring Apple Butter Week in Mount Joy.

Apple Butter Week will run from March 5-14. On Friday, the 5th, Jaycees with apple butter will be stationed at Greer's Jewelers, the Union National Bank, and the National Central Bank in Mount Joy.

Bob Stoner, chairman of the Jaycee's Apple Butter project says, "Your contributions of $1.00 or more will definitely be appreciated by those children."

Anyone can make a contribution to the Jaycee fund to help mentally retarded and physically handicapped children.

Jaycee Bob Stoner looks on as Mayor James Gingrich signs Apple Butter Week proclamation. To the left of the mayor are several boxes of apple butter.

Rotary celebrates 50 years

A fiftieth anniversary is a special occasion, and Saturday evening, February 28, 1976, culminated a month long celebration for the Mount Joy Rotary Club.

A dinner program was held at Hostetter's Dining Hall, with the Rotarians' wives and special guests in attendance.

President Carl R. Hallgren presented the Club with a fifty year certificate from Rotary International along with their congratulations.

The program included a special music presentation by the Lanco Lads Quartette and an International Dialogue featuring Rotary Foundation Fellowship Awardees. The graduate students participating were Ana Mercedes Gonzales, Puerto Rico, and Alvaro Miguel Orozco, Colombia, South America, both studying at Penn State University; Minoru Miyata, Japan, studying at Bucknell University; and Penn Glazier, a lawyer from Lancaster who was a Rotary Group Study Exchange to India. The moderator was Rotarian Dr. Robert F. Eshleman, Professor of Sociology, Franklin and Marshall College. Some of the topics discussed by the panel were their reactions to studying in a foreign country, their backgrounds and goals for life.

The Mount Joy Rotarians have donated over $4,000 to the International Fellowship Fund and they are proud of their participation in helping the students continue their education. This program also enables the students to become ambassadors of good will and further international understanding.

The members of the 50th Anniversary Committee were G. Walter Sloan, Chairman; John Booth, Joseph Shaeffer, Charles Groff, and Richard Rainbolt.

Del. couple praise local crew

by Hazel Baker

A local Mount Joy woman visiting a relative in a Wilmington, Delaware hospital overheard a patient praising the efforts of the Mount Joy Ambulance crew.

After Mr. and Mrs. Carlisle McKnight and their pet were in an accident of Route 283 recently they were taken to the hospital by the local ambulance crew.

Later, the McKnights received a considerate note from the crew, asking about their welfare and their pet's. The McKnights considered the inquiry thoughtful.
