

Marietta Auxiliary makes plans

by Hazel Baker

Plans were furthered for the Sounds and Spirits of '76, at the regular meeting of the Marietta Auxiliary to the Columbia Hospital at the home of Mrs. George Houseal. Mrs. William Heisey was co-hostess. Sounds and Spirits of '76 is a gourmet food tasting benefit with the accompanying colonial punch to be held Saturday, May 8 from 3 to 7 p.m., on the lawn of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller, 111 Fairview Street, Marietta.

Mrs. Joe Gilmartin, president, conducted the meeting. The chaplain, Mrs. William Heisey read the

"Winds of March," "Greeting Spring," and "At the Altar of Prayer."

Mrs. Harold Drager was "auctioneer" for a white elephant sale which netted the Hospital $63.80.

The April meeting will be held on the 12th, at 1:30 p.m., at the home of Mrs. James Baker.

Miss Mount Joy pageant soon

by Kathy Bower

The Mount Joy Jayceettes and Jaycees will sponsor a Miss Mount Joy Scholarship Pageant on Saturday, May 15, 1976. All single girls between the ages of 17 and 25 from the greater Mount Joy area are eligible to participate. The Pageant contestants will be judged on a personal interview, talent, evening gown, and swim suit competition.

Scholarships and awards will be presented to the winners and all contestants. The winner, who will be crowned Miss Mount Joy, will ride in the Mount Joy Bicentennial Memorial Day Parade and reign during Mount Joy's Bicentennial activities. Anyone interested in more information or in entering the Pageant may contact Mrs. William Bower at 653-4460.

WW will hear Yoga talk today

The March Welcome Wagon meeting will be held today, Wednesday the 17th at the American Legion starting at 6:30 p.m. Our speaker for the evening will be Betty Carole and her subject is "Yoga." Members should wear or bring some loose clothing so you can participate in the demonstration. If you have not yet been contacted to make your reservation, call Pat Weatherbie, 653-5574 by Friday.

The Omelets and Salads night has been postponed. Gray Sellers had an unexpected obligation for the 27th and has to cancel.

Ruth Moore would like to say "thank-you" to all the girls who sent cards, called, and visited. Their concern and thoughtfulness has perked her spirits up. Ruth is recovering slowly from a back injury and hopes to be good as new very soon.

There will be a convention on Volunteerism held at the Host Farm on Saturday, April 10th, 8:30 a.m. to 1:45 p.m. The cost is $5.50. If you would be interested in attending see Lois Phalen.
