

Kids keep reading as more DARE winners are announced

Melissa Wetzel, a 2d grader in Mrs. Hostetter's class at Grandview, has qualified for all 3 awards in the DARE reading program: the Reader's Club, the Avid Reader's Club, and the Reading Hall of Fame.

Local band at bicen. special

One hundred members of five area town bands, including the Bainbridge Band, will combine their talents to produce a bicentennial special for the public on Sunday, April 25, at 2 p.m. It will be staged in Manheim Township High School auditorium in Neffsville.

Did you hear...

The Susquehanna Times editor lost his check book near Maytown School. He didn't even know it was missing until he got a phone call from Mrs. Warren Rupp of W. Jacob St. The boys who found the check book had given it to her husband, who teaches at the school.
