Candles of Freedom burned by girl scouts

by Hazel Baker

"Flames of Freedom," a ceremony marking the 64th birthday of Girl Scouts in the United States, in our nation's 200 birthday year, was observed in the Witness

Tree District, Friday, at Donegal Presbyterian Church.

Girl Scouts of the above district assembled and at 5 p.m., they lighted candles and sang Girl Scout songs.

Cubs pass inspection, others write essays

Cub Pack 136 Mount Joy, PA Den 2 under the leadership of Evelyn Duke had an inspection by cubmaster Robert Mark.

The cubs got the following marks: Shawn Kreiner 80%; Scott Kling 70%; Mark Shearer 60%; Jerry Freed 50%. Essays on 'Why I Like America' by Den 4 under the leadership of Ann R. Mark were read. They are re-produced below:

David Nissley: "I like America because we can have the kind of homes we want. We have freedom of religion and freedom of sports."

Steven Waltz: "I like America because we can worship God the way we want. We can go where we want to. And when I think of all the famous Americans I wish I could be like them."

Michael Groff: "I like America because I can pray when I want to. Its fun to pray."

Brian Knipe: "I like America because of baseball."

Jack O'Connell: "I like America because of mountains and deer and camping. And because I can be a cub scout and wear a cub scout uniform."

Craig Shutter: "I like America because we are free."

Joseph Smith: "I like America because it is a wonderful place to live and its great men like George Washington."
