

Rev. McAdoo opposed to restrictive laws

The Rev. William A. McAdoo, former pastor of the English United Presbyterian Church in Marietta, has written a letter to the U.S. Supreme Court, accusing of making laws that interfere with the free exercise of religion. Such interference is prohibited by the First Amendment.

In his letter printed in the Cape Cod Times, Rev. McAdoo states that the court by some of its rulings has permitted "an artist" to declare when and where people may pray.

In his letter he stated a fear that unless the Court changes its ruling, prayers may be forbidden at the opening of Congress, in TV and radio, in the Military

New members in Nat. Honor Soc. at DHS

Gloria Fetter, the WGAL weather girl, was guest speaker at the Donegal Chapter of the National Honor Society at Donegal High School last week.

Mrs. Fetter, who joined the society when she was a student at Maytown High School, advised the students to look within themselves for the key to success.

The induction ceremony included songs by Michael Kohler and Mary Kanoff. They were accompanied by Tammy Newcomer and Cynthia Emenheiser.

Karen Greider was presiding officer.

Speakers included Claudia Brandt, Jean Bixler Jane Youtz, Julie Kanoff, Karen Henry, Donna Ebersole, Ken Wolgemuth, and Karen Greider.

The response for the new members was delivered by Phil Good.
