

Farm Women learn quilting

by Pauline E. Miller

Farm Women's Society #8 met at the home of Mary Sarver and Arline Witman, Mount Joy R2, Saturday, March 20th at 2 p.m. Mrs. Grace Bixler, President, presided over the meeting and led two songs. Mrs. Pauline Miller accompanied on the organ. The minutes were read by Mary Grace Martin, Secretary. The twenty-nine members present answered the Roll Call by completing the phrase, "Now is the time to" which revealed the uppermost duty of each lady as spring begins.

MRs. Phyllis Endslo had devotional time and gave timely thoughts of admonition concluding by reading scripture from the Chronicles.

Mrs. Ruth Drager gave the Treasurer's report in the absence of Mrs. Elizabeth Shuman.

Miss Debbie Hiestand, a junior at Elizabethtown High School told of her desire to join other teens to work in Brazil.

Nine visitors were present.

The main feature of the afternoon was given by Mrs. Bruce Greiner, 251 Park Avenue, Mount Joy. The ancient art of quilting was demonstrated and she taught each lady to make small designs to learn a bit of the art. Many creations of her own design were shown.

Those members who desire to go to Shady Maple on April 8th, to arrive at 7:30 p.m., and will leave the Mount Joy Mennonite Church at 6:30 p.m. They will be entertained by Society #21.

All enjoyed the social period as refreshments were served by hostesses Mary Sarver, Arline Witman, Evelyn Russell, and Belle Garber.

The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Eloise Rentzell, Bainbridge, R.D.#1, on April 17th. Slides will be shown by Kathryn Erb and Arline Witman of their trip to Alaska.

La Leche to meet

The Elizabethtown Mount Joy Group of La Leche League will hold its regular meeting on Thursday evening, April 8, at 7:30 p.m. in the meeting room at the Norlanco Family Health Center. The topic for informal discussion is "Nutrition and Weaning." Any woman interested in learning more about the fine art of mothering is welcome to attend. For more information call Mrs. Gladys Thompson, 426-1306; Mrs. Grace Faus, 665-4582; or newly-approved leader, Mrs. Elaine Good, 653-1590.

Maytown parents' meeting

The Maytown Parents and Teachers in Partnership will meet this Thursday, April 1, in the school cafeteria.

The topic of discussion for the evening will be "Learning Disabilities"

A five dollar prize will be awarded to the room with the most parents attending.

The program will begin at 7:30 p.m. A short business meeting will be held and refreshments will be served.

Everyone is encouraged to attend.
