Marietta JC's to hold Easter flower sale at new location

The annual sale of Easter Flowers by the Marietta Jaycees will be conducted from their new location this year. The co-chairmen, Jay Risser and Harv Reem announce the site as the New Jaycee Center, (former school) just off West Market Street, and North Waterford Avenue. The dates will be April 15th through April 17th. The hours will be from 10 a.m. to 9 p.m. Thursday to Saturday. We will look forward to serving all our former supporters at our new Center and hope the location will not be confusing; we hope to better display our flowers this year with more area.

Library books by mail

The Lancaster County Library announces Homebound Books By Mail, a new service to Lancaster City and County residents of all ages who are unable to travel to the Library materials. The service allows homebound persons to borrow paperbacks, hardbacks, Large Print materials, and cassette tapes by mail, free of charge.

Catalogs from which books and cassette tapes may be ordered are sent to the user's home.

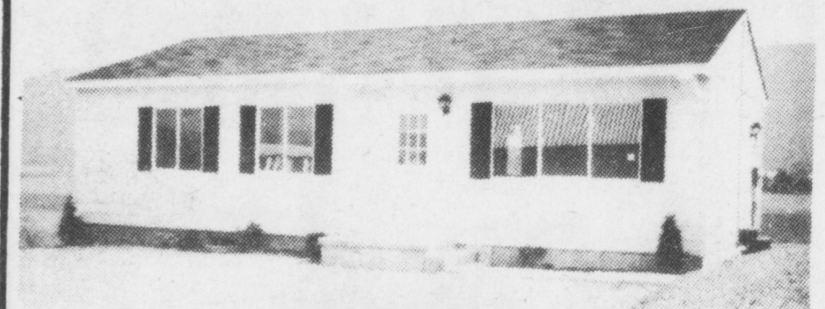

For local organizations whose membership includes persons that may be interested, a Library representative is available to speak at group meetings.

If you feel that you may be interested in becoming a Homebound Books By Mail subscriber or would like to arrange a speaker for your organization, contact Mrs. Melanie Moyer at the Lancaster County Library, 125 North Duke Street, Lancaster, or phone 394-2651, Extension 39.
