

Ruth Wisman with the quilt

CWC to discuss quilting

Quilting and the current revival of the Colonial folk art, will be the subjects of the May meeting of Elizabethtown Christian Women's Club. The meeting will be held at Myer Dining Hall, Elizabethtown College at noon on May 5. Tickets need not be purchased in advance, but reservations are necessary. Ladies on the CWC calling list will be contacted; others are invited to phone Jeanne Oakes, 653-2610 or Hilma Mumma, 367-2612, to make reservations. April 30 is the deadline. Nursery will be provided at the Elizabethtown Church of God.

Mrs. Charles Fruhwirth, Hershey, will demonstrate quilt-making. The speaker for the occasion, Barbara Bartlett, District Counselor, CWC, Baltimore, will continue the theme and speak on "The Designer's Needle." Ginny Scherea, mezzo-soprano, Aberdeen, will be the soloist.

A capacity crowd attended last week's meeting at Hostetter's, Mount Joy to hear Mini Jane Johnston, national representative of Christian Women's Clubs. Gwen Wright, Hershey, was the soloist. Helen Carter of Doc's Ceramic Studio, demonstrated the steps required to produce a ceramic piece. Mrs. Carter provided prizes which were awarded to Esther Yeagley, Catherine Grosh, Marie Evans, and Jean Barton.

Betsy Ross was there to discuss her favorite project with Mary Ann Ober. Mrs. Ober informed Betsy (Mary Sweigart) of the club's special project. This project is the support of ministers and their families in rural USA and Canada.

The club's Prayer Coffee will be held April 20 at the home of Millie Hilsner, R.D. #1, Rutt's Road, Elizabethtown, beginning at 9:30 a.m. Nursery will be provided. Coffees begin with a social time, then a devotional and prayer time follows.

Barto still playing ball

Head Shippensburg State Basketball Coach, Rodger Goodling announced that Donegal High's "Rejector" will be joining the Raider quintet next season.

Bob Barto, a 6-5, 190 pound center from Mount Joy, was Donegal High School's Most Valuable Player and leading rebounder this season. Barto scored 14 points and grabbed 16 rebounds per game. He also blocked six shots per game.

Goodling said, "Bob is an exceptionally good leaper. He has a good future at Shippensburg."

Afghan to be raffled off

Miss Ruth Wisman, Marietta, crocheted a hand made afghan in the Jubilee Pattern for the Marietta Auxiliary to the Columbia Hospital benefit, "Sounds and Spirits of '76." The benefit will be held at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph

Miller, 111 Fairview Avenue on Saturday, May 8, from 3 to 7 p.m. Rain date for the event will be Sunday, May 9th. The afghan will be raffled to the lucky ticket holder. Chances are available from members or at the event.
