MYAA trains umpires

The Marietta Youth Athletic Association is planning to sponsor an umpire training clinic for both baseball and softball, with PIAA approved umpires as instructors. Mr. Banks Wagner, Marietta will be in charge of these sessions with the assistance of Mr. Jerry Cranford also of Marietta, and MYAA Vice-President.

"For years the MYAA has concerned itself exclusively with teaching kids to play baseball, but a very important part of the game is the officiating and we hope to not only give people an insight to this new fact, but we hope to employ these people to work our games this year, (Midget-Midget baseball and girls' softball)," Mr. Cranford explains. "This should improve the games, relax the tension on the managers, add to the enjoyment of the spectators and add income to those who have attended our clinic. So for kids 16 and over, here is a chance to do something for the kids and the Community and an opportunity to learn to do the job right."

For additional information contact either Mr. Wagner or Mr. Cranford right away.

At the regular monthly meeting of the Marietta Youth Athletic Association, Winnie Bensinger, Registration Committee Chairperson, announced that 95 youngsters have signed up for our summer baseball program and that one more day of registration will be held Saturday, April 24th. Any boy, 8 to 16, and girls 8 to 21, are eligible to register. There is a $2.00 charge, to cover insurance, and if signing for the first time—a birth certificate is needed. Only extreme conditions, approved by the Board, will justify registering after this date.

Merv Gutshall, property chairman, informed the group that the new boys' uniforms have arrived and will be modeled for a picture to appear in future Susquehanna Times issue.

Don Albright has been appointed to the position of manager of the Orioles of our Midget-Midget League, Butch Bensinger, who will remain as a coach assisting Albright.

The next meeting of the MYAA will be held Sunday, May 9th, at the Community House, 2 p.m. All interested people are urged to attend.
