ST. MARK'S UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
The Youth Department of St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, will be in complete charge of the Sunday Worship (10:15) on April 25, 1976. Devotions, greetings, ushering, and special music will all be provided from among the young people of the congregation. This is in keeping with a long-standing tradition of the church to fully integrate youth into the life and activities of the congregation.

In the evening, at 5:30 p.m., the youth will serve a supper to senior citizens of the congregation who will be their guests. A special slide presentation will be the program feature. There will be hymn and chorus singing as well.

The Lutheran Church Women of Zion Lutheran Church, Marietta, will sponsor a yard sale from 9 a.m. until dusk on Saturday, April 24. Homemade chicken corn soup will be available. New and used goods will be sold. Those who want to take home soup must bring their own containers. Profits will go into the building fund.

DEDICATION SERVICES
The West Green Tree Church of the Brethren, R.D. #2, Mount Joy has recently been engaged in an extensive building program. The program included the remodeling of the present sanctuary and the addition of a new Christian education wing. A lot of dreams, prayers, and plain hard work will culminate in a series of upcoming dedication services. Four dedication services have been planned. Saturday, May 1, is Community Night with ministers from neighboring churches participating in the services. The Rev. James Myer, from White Oak Church of the Brethren and a representative from the Atlantic Northeast District will bring the morning message, Sunday, May 2, at 10 a.m. Rev. Myer will speak on the topic "Energizing the Church. Sunday afternoon at 2 p.m., the main service of dedication will be held. An evening of music is planned for Sunday evening, May 2, at 7:15 p.m. An open house will follow each service. Light refreshments will be served by the women of the church. The public is cordially invited to come and share in these services of thanksgiving and dedication.

ST MARK'S
An unusual worship experience using the German language as the medium will be held on Wednesday Evening, April 21st, in the sanctuary of St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Mount Joy. The service begins at 7:30 p.m. The program has been arranged as a part of the congregation's observance of the bicentennial year. For many years German was the language of the people who made up the membership of the Evangelical Church and the Church of the United Brethren in Christ-which today are a part of the United Methodist Church. The special service also coincides with the visit to Mount Joy of two delegates from the Evangelisch-Methodistische Kirche in Germany to the General Conference of the United Methodist Church in Portland, Oregon. The two pastors are Walter A. Siering, Supt. of Berlin, and Wolfgang Olferrmann of Essen. These gentlemen have consented to hold the service. Pastor Siering will share in the devotions and Pastor Olferrmann will preach the sermon. Also participating in the evening's program will be the Rev. James Kiefer of Elizabethtown who for a number of years lived and worked in Germany serving on the staff of Child Evangelism Fellowship. The choir of St. Mark's Church will sing under the direction of Mrs. Marilyn Miller. Gerald Miller will be at the console.

CHQUES UNITED METHODIST CHURCH
On Sunday, April 25, 1976 during the regular Worship Hour beginning at 10:30 the youth of Chiques Church will conduct a unique Worship Experience. Ms. Esther Walters the church organist will accompany all singing as well as the prelude and postlude on the piano. The call to Worship will be given by Sally Lincoln, the opening song with youth and congregation will be "Two Man's Hands", the congregational prayer with the modern version of the Lord's prayer will be led by Marc Brumbach. The Children's and youth choirs under the direction of Ms. Schade-man will present a special anthem. The scripture reading based on Christ's Resurrection will be read by Bruce Gundlach, reading from "God Is For Real Man". A Space Age Responsive Reading will be lead by Curtis Bossert. The affirmation of faith written by a Junior High Church School Class from Washington DC will be lead by Susan Gundlach. An unusual type of prayer will be given by Scott Hirst. Making the announcements and giving the offering prayer will be Lindsay Herr. During the offering, the Children's and youth choirs will sing "God Loves A Cheerful Giver". The second song with youth and the congregation will be "Lord Of The Dance". The message will be presented by Gerald Alleman who will in a somewhat different method explain the Meaning of Worship. The closing song with the youth and congregation is from the off Broadway Musical, "You're A Good Man Charlie Brown", titled, "Happiness", which is really the theme for the Worship experience. The benediction will be offered by Gerald Alleman. A special guest having a unique role in the Worship Experience is Phil Stauffer from St. Paul's United Methodist Church, Elizabethtown. The Women Society of Christian Service of Chiques will pick up the tab for Sunday dinner for the youth choirs, they will have a square meal at the Lancaster Ponderosa Restaurant. A warm welcome is extended to friends and visitors to be a part of this Worship Experience.

The Susquehanna Times Church Page will now include the regular schedules of all area churches. It will no longer be necessary for these to be mailed to us on a weekly basis. We do invite churches to send us news items about special programs of community interest for inclusion on the Church Page. Please send all Church News to Susquehanna Times, Box 75A, R. D. 1, Marietta, PA, 17547. Copy deadline is Friday.
