Volunteers Bridgett & Hess honored by Head Start

The Lancaster Volunteer Service Center, as part of this week's Volunteer Recognition Week, has recognized Brady Hess and Romaine Bridgett as two of their outstanding volunteers. Here is what Volunteer Center officials had to say about Mr. Hess and Mrs. Bridgett.

Brady Hess is one of our most devoted volunteers at the Mount Joy Center. Brady Hess helps us out every day for two hours in the afternoon. At 3 p.m., all the kids begin to worry if he isn't there to fasten the seatbelts and act as bus aid on the afternoon bus run. Brady is retired from Gerberich-Payne Shoe Company, where he worked for 48 years. He is an active member of the Florin Fire Company and received recognition last year for his years of dedicated service. He's a big help to us and we hope that he enjoys us as much as we enjoy him.

Romaine Bridgett recently volunteered a morning out of her busy schedule to come into our center and sing with the children. Romaine is well-known throughout the county for her work with the Lancaster Opera Workshop and many other choral groups. She teaches voice at her home. It has been said that children are her best audiences and she proved it when twenty active Head Start children sat spellbound for 30 minutes, learning new songs and listening to "The Three Bears" a story sung by Mrs. Bridgett.
