Mount Joy Leisure Club meets

by Joe Shaeffer

The Mount Joy Leisure Club met on Monday, April 12 at Hostetters with 123 members present. The meeting began at noon with a covered dish dinner and after the invocation by Arthur Braun, a wide array of hot dishes, cold dishes and desserts were served. After the dinner, President Joe Shaeffer called the meeting to order with the pledge of allegiance to the flag, followed by the secretary's report by Nedra Brandt. In the absence of treasurer Kathryn Zink, who is vacationing in Florida, no report was given.

Lena Eshleman of the Sunshine Committee reported twelve cards sent to the shut-ins. Mrs. Walter Brandt will serve for the following three months on the Sunshine Committee. Birthday and anniversaries in April. New members were introduced and they were Susan Hershey, Lester and Anna Hitz and Minnie Gamber. Mr. and Mrs. Frank Rhinehart were introduced as guests.

Dr. Irwin Richman, Bainbridge, is picture editor of Pennsylvania 1776, publication issued by the Pennsylvania State University Publications Office.

DID YOU HEAR...

Dr. Richman is Chairman of the Graduate Program of American Studies and History at Pennsylvania State University, Capitol Campus.

President Shaeffer announced that papers would be given each table and those desiring to go to Washington on May 12, were to sign their names, and at the May meeting to pay for their reservations. Mrs. Cyrus Gainor stated that three folding tables were stored in her garage and she needed the room.

The club will hold an auction next month and some suggested they be sold. After some discussion to keep the tables and they would be stored in the presidents home. It was also decided that Clinton Eby's antique Ford touring car would be used in the bicentennial parade and would represent the Mount Joy Leisure Club.

On Friday, May 12, there will be a fund drive for Muscular Dystrophy and in the three banks in Mount Joy there will be a table with a container to deposit a contribution, manned by the members of the Leisure Club. Hostesses for the May meeting are Mary Boozer, Ruth Brandt, Mrs. Sam Dock, Mable Derr, Lillian Eby, Anna Mae Eby, Ruth Eby, Nora Eby, and Lena Eshleman.

The program for the day was in two parts. The first part President Shaeffer explained the fee of joining and the dues. The dues, President Shaeffer stated, are twenty five cents a month, payable if the member attends the meeting or if he doesn't attend, and a member in arrears six months will be subject to expulsion after notification.

The second part of the program consisted of old home town movies, some dating back to the year 1937. A paper was passed asking those interested in serving at the tables May 14, which will be in the banks, to sign their names. The following volunteered, Mrs. Irvin Ginder, Bertha Foreman, Mr. and Mrs. Earl Eshleman, Ethel and Frank Heidlaufer, Ruth and Anna Mae Eby, Fern LeVan, Harriett Brown, Vesta Grissinger, Marie Evans, and Grace and Joe Stauffer. A schedule will be arranged and presented at the May meeting.

The next meeting will be May 10 and will be an auction. Members are asked to bring unwrapped articles for the auction, and the proceeds will be for the Leisure Club.
