

E-town sisters to appear in play

Miss Black

Two sisters from Elizabethtown will carry major roles in the "Sound of Music", a Dutch Family Festival production. Carolyn and Barbara Black, daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Merle Black, have been cast as the Baroness Elsa Schreuder and Brigitta, one of the von Trapp children, respectively.

Carolyn, presently a student at both Elizabethtown College and Curtis Institute of Music in Philadelphia, once carried the role of Maria in an Elizabethtown Community Production of "The Sound of Music." She also played Eliza in "My Fair Lady" and Emily in "Our Town" at Elizabethtown High School.

A student of music Carolyn has performed with Liberace, Aaron Copland, and Arthur Fiedler, as well as on local television, WITF, WGAL, and WLYH.

Also on the cast as a nun is Deb Henderson of Elizabethtown. Miss Henderson was a theatre major at Elizabethtown College, and currently is instructor of Mass Communication at Central PA Business School.

"The Sound of Music" will open Friday night, June 25 at 8 p.m., at the Dutch Family Festival, and will run Tuesday through Saturday evenings through September 4, 1976. Reservations at 394-6539 (after June 10, 397-4431).

Merle and Phyllis Good are producers of the musical. Stan Deen is director.
