

New Church to be dedicated Saturday

The Reverend Russell Williams, District Superintendent of the Assemblies of God Churches, will be the speaker for the Dedication Services of the newly constructed church at route 141 and Ormine Road, Marietta, on Saturday, May 15, at 2:30 p.m. The Reverend Leroy Hoover, Pastor will present special music.

The church, formerly known as Marantha Chapel.

began when a group of Christians met in September 1934, a business meeting was held to organize an assembly. Nineteen charter members signed their names for this purpose. Of these original charter members these persons are still attending: Mr. and Mrs. John Gusler and Mr. and Mrs. Aaron Gottshall, and Paul Gottshall.

In 1935, an old school house was rented, at 524 East Market Street, Marietta, and sessions were held there until 1937 when "Old Zion Church" was rented from the Marietta Boro. In 1946, Marantha Chapel was affiliated with the Assemblies of God. The church was incorporated in 1960 and became the Assemblies of God Church of Marietta.

The Reverend Thomas R. Brubaker organized the congregation and the first resident pastor was the Reverend Harold E. Doerson.

Pastors who followed were: Rev. Charles A. Parrish, Rev. Elwood Bell, Rev. Citor Burkett, Rev. Paul C. Parrish, Rev. Anthony C. Planes, Rev. John J. Myers, Rev. Dennis Mann, and the current pastor the Rev. Leroy Hoover.

The public is invited to attend the dedication services.
