Leisure Club meets

by Jos. Shaeffer

The Mount Joy Leisure Club met on Monday, May 10, with 129 members and guests present, the largest attendance to date. The meeting began at 1 p.m. with President Joe Shaeffer officiating. The usual procedure of pledge of allegiance to the flag, the secretary's report by Nedra Brandt, treasurers report by Kathryn Zink, and honoring those having a birthday or anniversary during the month of May.

Ruth Brandt of the Sunshine Committee reported 12 cards sent to shut-ins. Two new members were introduced, Mr. and Mrs. John Booth. Guests were Emily Heisey, Florence Wittle, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Miller, Flora Longenecker, Mary Howe, and Mr. and Mrs. Abraham Harding.

President Shaeffer announced the bus trip to Washington, scheduled for May 12 was canceled because of the volume of people visiting the nation's capitol, making it necessary to wait in line and a great deal of walking. He then stated a bus trip would be planned for June 19 to Wellsboro, PA to the Loral Festival. To date seventy one have signed for the trip.

President Shaeffer read a letter from the Mount Joy Athletic Association, extending an invitation to the Mount Joy Leisure Club, to be their special guests at Kunkle Field on May 28 for a special program and a double-header ball game. Thirty five members will attend.

The business meeting adjourned and the invocation was given by Marlin Kaylor after which cake and coffee was served. The program for the day was an auction. Members were requested to bring items for the auction, and by the time the auction started, three large tables were covered with items, and there was some spirited bidding on some of the items.

The next meeting will be held at Hostetters, Monday, June 14. The members are requested to pay for the reservations to Wellsboro at this meeting.
