Business leaders to work with DHS

A Business Education lay advisory committee for Donegal High School has been appointed to provide a link between the school and the community in an effort to bring business education in continuous communication with the local businesses in our area.

This committee will help to constantly review and revise the business education curriculum being taught at Donegal.

Lay members are: Mrs. Nancy Bromer, Publisher, The Susquehanna Times; Mr. Jere Duke, Managing Accountant, Lancaster Malleable Castings Company; Mr. Dennis Fackler, Assistant Cashier, Union National Mount Joy Bank; Mr. Gerald W. Fredenmaker, Personnel Manager, NCR Corporation; Mr. Donald Leonhard, Assistant Treasurer-Secretary, Donegal Mutual Insurance Company; and Mr. Charles Ricedorf, Office Manager The Sico Company.

Donegal school personnel working with the committee are: Mr. Ragnar Hallgren,

Mr. Drenner, Principal of Secondary Education; Mr. Harry West, Assistant Principal; Mr. Roy Arnold, teacher of Business Law and Typing; Miss Rudi Durci, teacher of CIVIC, Typing, and Business Math; Miss Kitty Etsell, teacher of Typing, Notehand and family finance; Mrs. Peters, teacher of Shorthand, General Business Training, Business Communications and Calculations; Mr. Charles Portser, teacher of Accounting, Business Machines and Data Processing and CIVIC; and Mrs. Naomi Houseal, teacher of Office Practice and Typing.

The group plans to meet several times each year. Dennis Fackler was elected Chairman and Donald Leonhard, Secretary.

Additional lay advisory committees already in existence in the school district include a Committee on Reading with Messiah Children's Home and a Committee on Long Range Plans and Elementary Schools.

Sue Hamilton goes to bankers dinner

by Wendy Golden

On May 5, 1976, Sue Hamilton, Vice-president, of the Future Business Leaders of America club at Donegal High School attended the Lancaster County Bankers Association's Annual Dinner for various clubs in the area. Only one student from each club chapter may attend.

The Lancaster County Banker's Award is an award given to the most active club member in one particular chapter. Business teachers from each school choose the member they feel has been most active in the club. The teacher's this year from our school feel that it is a most difficult decision this year.

On Thursday, May 13, 1976, the Donegal chapter and the Hempfield held an exchange of 3 students each. Nancy Heinaman, Verna McNaughton, and Dana Elliott were the three girls from Donegal that went to Hempfield. They toured the school and went to classes with their escorts.

The three girls that came to our school were Jerry Horst, Linda Liester, and Diane Harte.

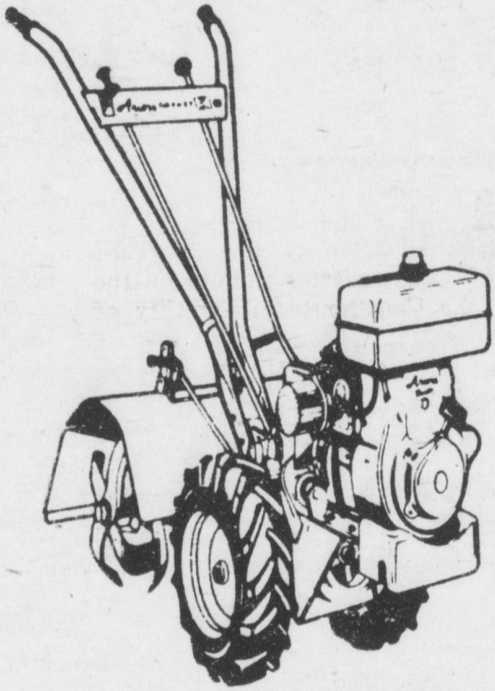

On May 8 FBLA held its yearly money making project, a hoagie sale. They were sold at the Spring Carnival held at Donegal.

This is the last article this year on FBLA. The club has accomplished much. I'm sure that the others in the club besides myself, feel the same way. I sure hope there will be more business students to take the place of those graduating seniors. Mrs. R. Peters, thanks for a good year from all the F.B.L.A. members of D.H.S.
