COMMUNITY RELIGION SERVICE
by Elsie McClosky
There will be a Community Religion Service held in the "open air" in "The Dell" behind the Riverview Elementary School, Marietta, on Sunday Evening, July 11th at 7 p.m. This will be a Community Service with all the area churches participating. It is being sponsored by the Bicentennial Committee of Marietta, Maytown, and East Donegal. The Community Chorus will assist in the service.

ST MARK'S

On Sunday, June 6th, at 10:15 a.m., a Pentecostal Worship Experience will be observed at St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Mount Joy. Members of the Pastor's Class, who have been engaged in weekly instruction since October of 1975-having been tested and interviewed-will present themselves for the celebration of their Confirmation and Reception into the Christian Church. Members of this year's class are as follows: Julie Barnhart, Betsy Germer, Theresa Good, Cindy Heagy, Scott Hoover, Terry Kuhn, Steve Kunkle, Craig Lehman, Benjamin Keller, Drew Martin, Duane Musser, Kris Piersol, Cindy Robinson, Lori Sagerer, Roxanne Shank, and Georgiann Westerman. As part of its preparation for full membership the class has both attended and participated regularly in worship, they have done projects, and they have taken an all-day class tour to Philadelphia.

The Pastor will conduct the worship service. Parents will assist in the laying-on of hands. A new study Bible will be the congregation's token of appreciation and of encouragement to the young people. A message entitled, "What Is Your Heart Condition?", will be given by the Rev. Kohler. The Chancel Choir of the church will provide special music. The congregation will share in much of the liturgy of the day.

Members of the church and friends of the Confirmands are cordially invited to share in a very special moment in the lives of these young people.

St. John's Episcopal Church of Marietta was honored by the visit of the Right Reverend Earl M. Honaman, Bishop Honaman, during the service of confirmation, confirmed eight members of the parish. The members of the Confirmation class were Jodie Marie Bowers, David W. Deitrick, Diane Lynn Gilchrist, Cathy L. Penwell, Henry Paul Snavelly, Kim Belle Arnold, Karen Susan Roberts, and Margaret G. Hershey. Prior to the confirmation service, the parish acknowledged, in its worship, the day of Rogation. Which is a day set aside by the Anglican Church to ask God's blessing upon the fields and streams which produce our food for the coming year. In the Confirmation Rite the people renew their vows of loyalty to Christ. In the Anglican Faith, they are made to realize, that the life to which they are called as Churchmen requires super human power and faith. As they kneel before the Bishop for the gift of the Holy Spirit, God enables each of them by indwelling to continue his forever and to daily increase in His Holy Spirit more and more until we come into his everlasting kingdom.

The bishop and the confirmation class were honored at a reception following the service. The reception was given in the parish house by the church women. Father and Mrs. Red were host to the Bishop and Mrs. Honaman along with Rev. and Mrs. Charles Coldren at a dinner following the morning festivities. Father Coldren is the retired minister of St. John's.

GLOSSBRENNER

Ten young people will be confirmed and received into full-membership at Glossbrenner United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, on Pentecost Sunday, June 6, at 9:30 a.m. Included in the confirmation class are Scott Bricker, Susan Crouser, David Eichler, Nettie Gruber, Mitch Mumma, Donna Rogers, Susan Rogers, Rick Sheetz, Barbara Stoner, and Mary Wagner.

The ten confirmands will participate in the leadership of the morning worship service. Prior to making the decision to be confirmed, the confirmands participated in a 2-year program of confirmation preparation which included class sessions, camping, field trips, and worship service evaluations.

The confirmands cordially invite the public to share in this special service of theirs.
