

Congregational Bible Church honors family

Charles Geesey, son of Mrs. Marian Geesey, Marietta RD1, was honored at a special farewell service at Congregational Bible Church Sunday night, May 30.

Mr. Geesey preached the sermon and he and his wife, Lucille, and their five children were present for a time of fellowship and refreshments following the service.

The Geeseys are beginning missionary service with the Fundamental Baptist Mission in Trinidad. They will be living in Sangre Grande, a city of 20,000 people. This city, along with many other cities and villages in Trinidad, has no gospel preaching witness.

A special prayer of dedication for the Geeseys was offered by Pastor Emeritus John S. Hiestand. During the prayer, Pastor James Reapsome and members of the church council stood at the front of the church around the Geesey family.

Mr. Geesey was born and raised in Marietta. He studied at Moody Bible Institute, Chicago, and has served with Christian mission organizations in Michigan and West Virginia.

He is one of eleven children. His brothers Joseph and Kenneth live in Marietta; James, William and Paul live in Elizabethtown, and Merle lives in Mount Joy.

His sisters are Mrs. Emma Irwin, Lancaster, Mrs. Marian Sholly, Mount Joy RD 1, Mrs. Jane Weibley, Columbia RD2, and Mrs. Grace Mellott, Williamsport.

Mr. Geesey's father, Merle passed away 12 years ago.

The Geeseys' children are Steven, 16, Nathan, 12, Andrew, 8, Elizabeth, 4 and David, 2.

"When I want to know about Statement Savings I talk to the Customer Service Specialist at National Central."

"Piston rings . . . crankshafts . . . front end alignments . . . that's where I know a thing or two. But when it comes to money, I look up National Central."
 "Take their Statement Savings. You get a nice 5% interest. And a statement every quarter that shows your deposits and withdrawals. You get 24-Hour Banking, too. You know . . . the automatic tellers. Let you bank any time. Any day. Even in the middle of the night."
 "With Statement Savings and 24-Hour Banking, I've got nothing to lose. Not even a passbook." Ask your Customer Service Specialist about it. At the nearest National Central office.
