Carnival in Mount Joy

Maytown High alumni reunion

Members and guests of the Maytown-East Donegal High School Alumni Association held their annual banquet at Hostetters Banquet Hall, Mount Joy, Saturday night.

Howard Frysinger, class of 1898 offered the invocation.

Mary Kanoff, presented several vocal selections accompanied by Cindy Emenheiser.

Hazel Crankshall conducted a general information class. Group singing, greetings from anniversary classes and a necrology report by Mrs. George Waller completed the program.

William Heisey, president appointed a nominating committee of Miriam watto, Ruth Newcomer, Jane White and Elizabeth Drace.

Twelve members were present who graduated more than 60 years ago: Howard Frysinger, Sarah Habecher (class of 1902);

Barbara Fellenbaum (1911); Martha Schaffner (1912); Dan Wolgemuth (1912); Isabelle Endslo (1913); Ezra Garber (1913); Helen Moyer (1914); Emily Kraybill (1915); and Gertrude Shaffner (1915).

Current officers in addition to the president are Norman Houseal, vice-president, Hellen Hollenbaugh, corresponding, Hazel Crankshall, recording secretary and John Drace, treasurer.

There is a total of thirteen acts in the program which also includes the traditional grand entrance and finale. This year's grand entrance is a Salute to '76 using a medley of

George M. Cohan favorite songs. Music for this dance program ranges from the sounds of Barbra Streisand to Maxine Nightengale. The acts to be seen are: Raggedy Ann and Andy, Sweet Charity, Big and Bad, Inc., Merry Mothers vs. Sneaky Sons, Suffering Suffrajettes, Summer Racquetters, Backstage Bedlam, Hoe-down Honeys, Graceful Goddesses, and Disco-Dancers.

There is no admission charge, but a donation will be taken to cover the costs of costumes and props. Everyone is invited to attend this evening of movement and music. A special invitation is extended to all former gym club members from the past nine years to attend a performance. Without former members' participation and support, we would not be celebrating our tenth annual show this year.
