MJ Welcome Wagon elects 1976 officers

On May 15, 1976, the Mount Joy Welcome Wagon Club held formal installation at Mr. Lacy's installing its 76-77 officers.

On June 16, 1976, the club is planning to make its yearly trip to Mt. Gretna. They will be leaving the Weis parking lot at 5:15 and all reservations and monies must be to Janice Shelly no later than June 4, 1976.

Through the summer craft classes will be held to make items for the Christmas bazaar. Those who are interested in helping out should contact Nancy Penkunas, Judy Miller, or Sharon Roberts for information.

Anyone knowing of newcomers, births, or engagements in the Mount Joy area please contact our hostesses, Barbara Banks at 653-4478 or Cherie Dillow at 653-1609.

Bainbridge Legion to re-activate '76 militia

As a further Contribution to the success of the Conoy Township Bi-Centennial celebration, LIBHART-DYER, Post 197, American Legion, Bainbridge, Pa., will sponsor the re-activated 2nd Company, 5th Pennsylvania Battalion, Lancaster County Militia (1775), starting with the parade on Saturday, June 12, 1976.

The group, re-activated in May 1975, consists of 14 men from the south-eastern part of Lancaster County, currently based in New Holland, is complete with colors, fife and drum, flint lock firing muskets and uniforms of the period, will parade with members of Post 197 and veterans of Conoy Township. the group's theme will be the "The Old and the New - 1776 - 1976"

In addition to the parade, the militia will en-camp on the river shore at the end of Race St., in Bainbridge, where they will conduct a living history and present a flint lock musket firing demonstration at 2 p.m. Saturday.

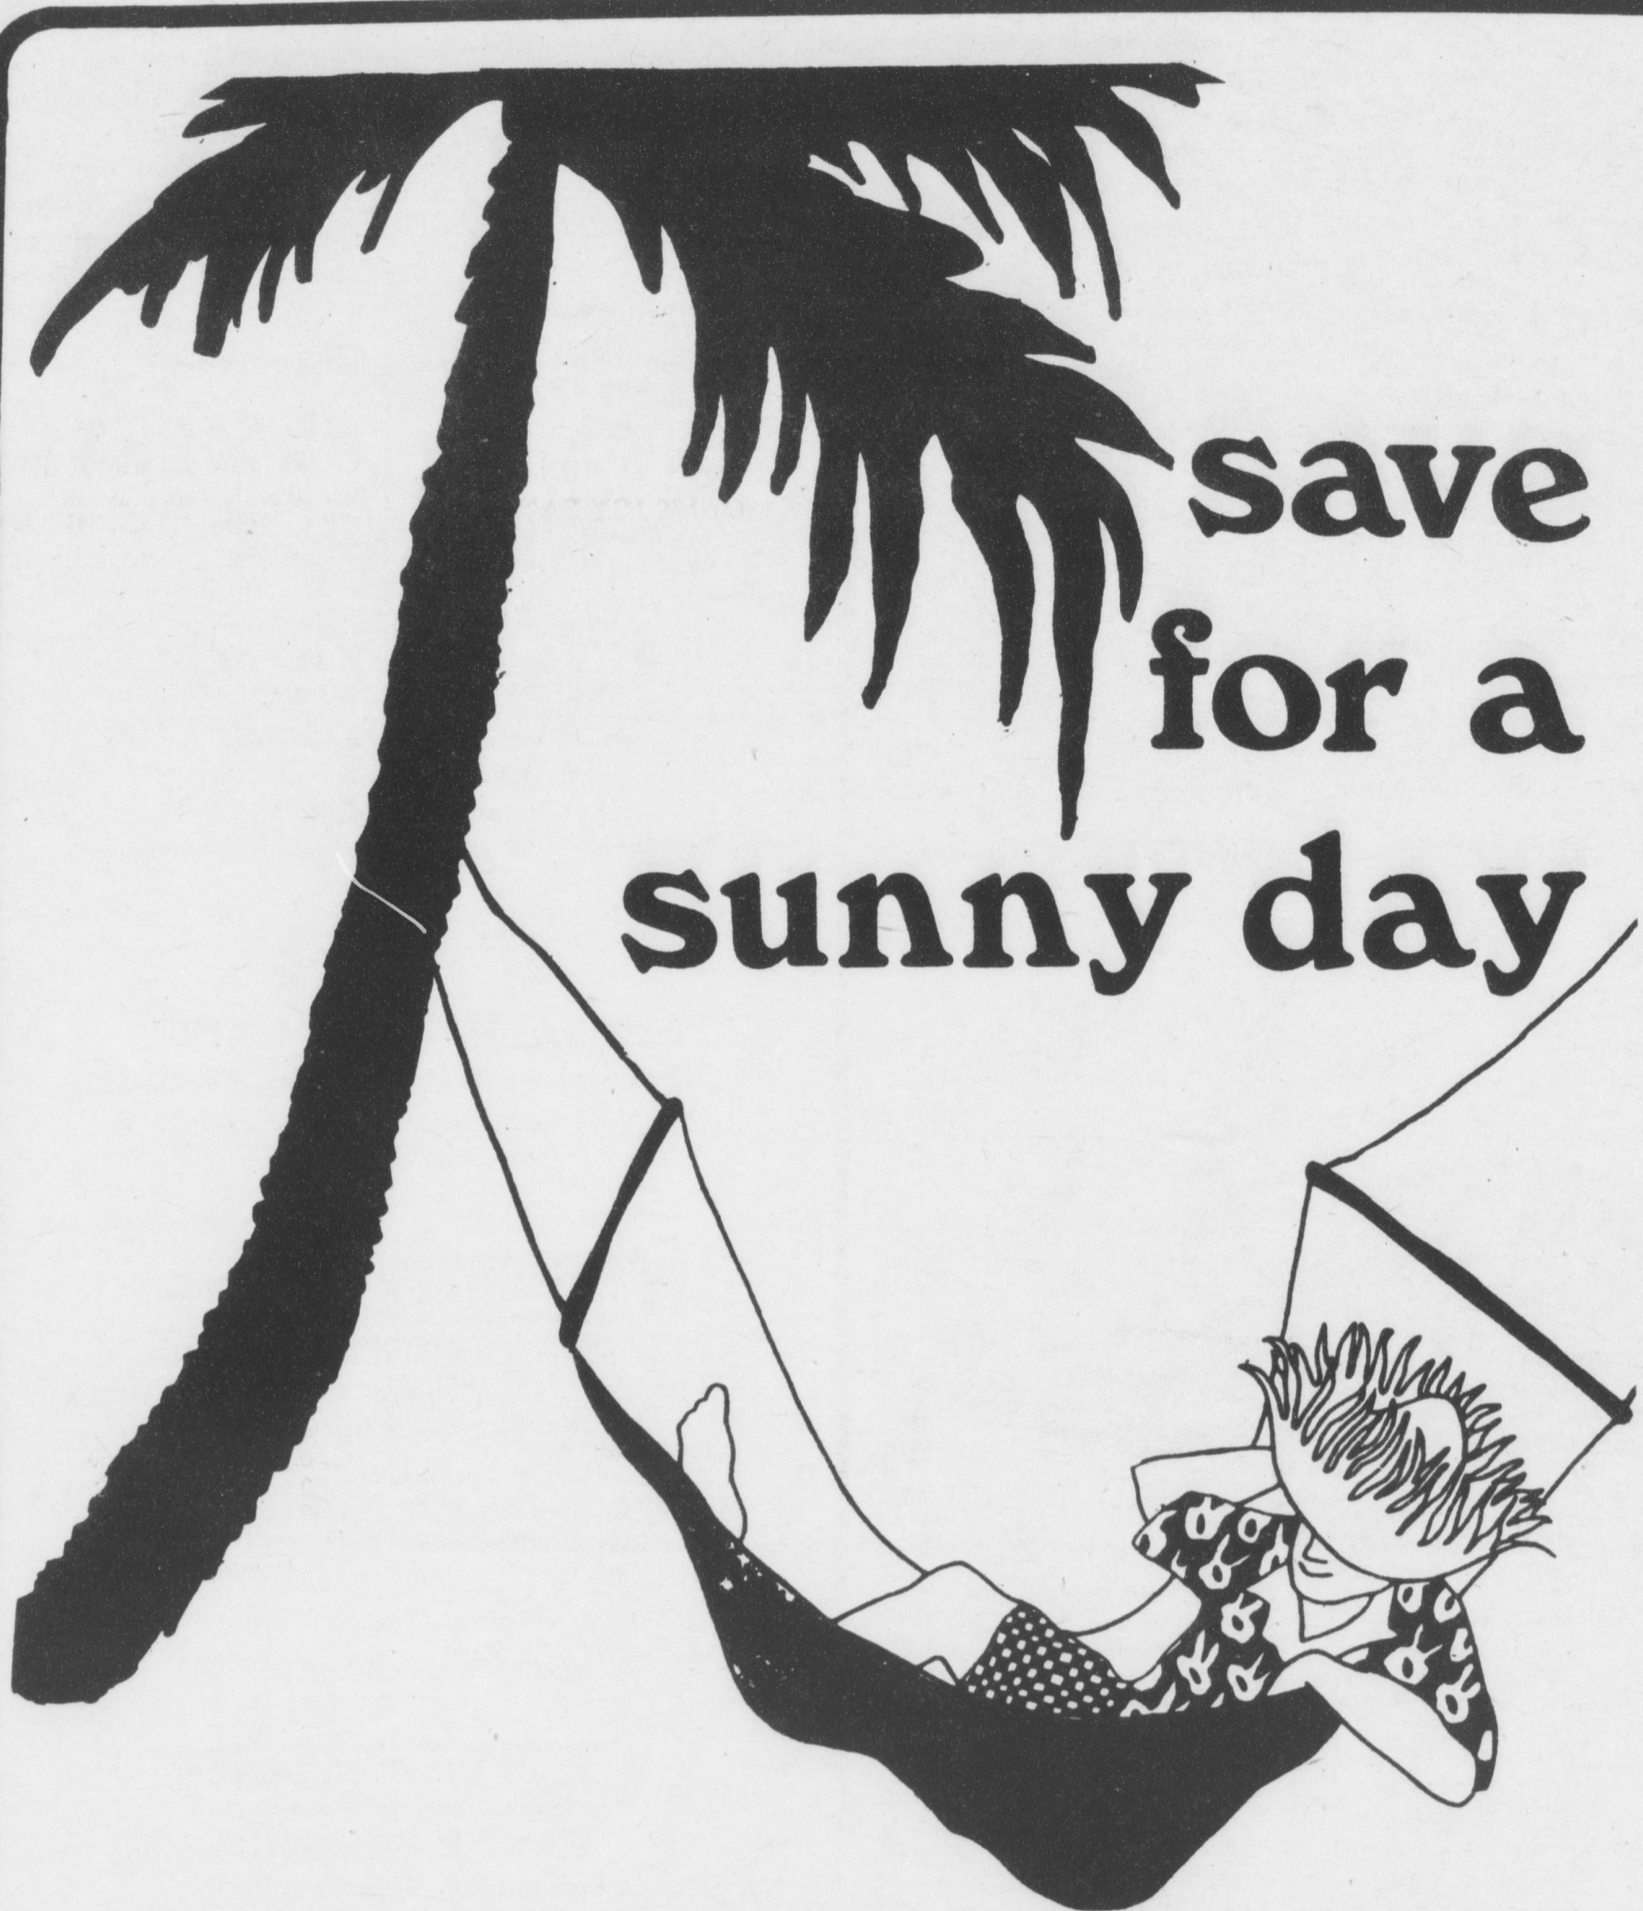

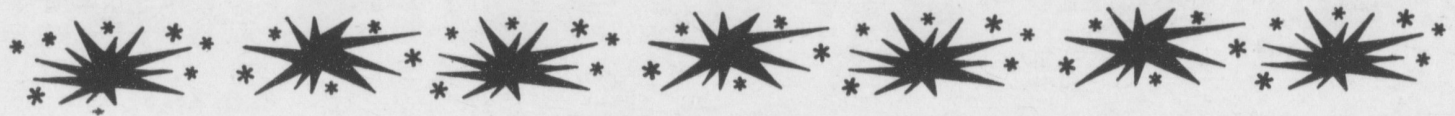

Since their beginning, members of the militia have participated in events as far away as South Carolina, however for the 1976 Bi-Centennial year, the group is dedicated to helping surrounding communities celebrate our nation's 200th birthday.

Bainbridge and Conoy Township is fortunate to obtain the services of this fine group and Post 197, American Legion, is very proud to present them to the community on this special occasion.

Cub Scouts plan trip

June 15, 1976, Mount Joy Cub Scout Pack 136 will be going to Gettysburg, PA. All scouts will meet at Seiler Elementary School at 8 a.m.

All cubs should bring a bag lunch and turn in $2.00 to den mothers or cubmaster at once. Cubs will wear clothes they wore in the Memorial Day Parade or cub scout uniforms.
