

Christian Women's Club meets

"Hurrah for the Red, White and Blue," will be the theme of the E-town Christian Women's Club meeting on July 7th at Hostetter's in Mt. Joy. A noon meeting is planned. Ladies with early-American type dresses are asked to wear them.

Richard Merritt, baritone, will present Sounds of America. Paul Pollock, educator, Middletown Jr. High School, will give the history of the American flag. Mrs. Orion Rhodes, Lancaster, will speak on Words for all America.

Mrs. Rhodes has traveled extensively in Europe and Asia and is in demand as a speaker for youth groups, churches, and Christian Women's Clubs. She is a graduate of East Texas Baptist College and South Western Baptist Theological Seminary. She is a homemaker and mother.

Last week's meeting featured Mother-Son night and sons from early years to middle age came with their mothers. The program featured sports fashions from B & B Sporting Goods, Elizabethtown.

A lively and talented music group from Messiah College furnished music.

Donald MacCullough from Lancaster College of Bible spoke on "What's the Score," and urged giving our best efforts to our Christian commitment as an athlete must give better than his best if he is to win top honors in his field.

Jean Hartman, CWC District Counselor, spoke on the use of the Life Series booklets as a Christian outreach.

Floral prizes were awarded to Mrs. Elizabeth Longenecker, whose son Robert came the greatest distance (75 miles) to attend the meeting; to Mrs. Alfred Eckroth, mother with the oldest son in attendance; to Mrs. Annabel Spickler, with four sons in attendance; and Mrs. Maxine Lightfold, who most recently went fishing with her son.

Prizes to sons were gift certificates from B & B Sporting Goods. They were given to Don Barber, the son who most recently went for a bike ride with his mother; to Chris McCue who most recently played tennis with his mother; and to Bobby Longenecker for carrying the most recent picture of his mother.

Reservations for the July 7 meeting must be made no later than July 2. Check and return envelope, self addressed and stamped, should be sent to Mrs. Carol Bowman, R.D.1, Mt. Joy, Pa., 17552. Phone 653-5728.

The Mt. Joy Mennite Church nursery will be open for the July 7 Meeting.
