

Marietta Aux. plans luncheon

The Marietta Fire Company Auxiliary voted to serve a luncheon at Wyeth Laboratory on June 23rd at its recent meeting at the home of Marietta Bailey.

Rubber Maid Products will be reordered by June

25th, interested persons may contact any member.

Marion McKain and Marietta Bailey are co-chairpersons of the July 24th carnival. New jackets will be received this week.

A bus trip to Atlantic City sometime during August was also planned.

The president, Marion McKain, thanked all ladies for their splendid work in making possible the presentation of $2,500 for this year from the Auxiliary toward the building fund.

Columbia Boy's AA invites teams

The Columbia Boy's Athletic Association will hold their 4th Annual Youth Baseball Tournament this year during the week-end of July 9, 10, 11. Rain or completion dates are the following weekend, July 16, 17, & 18.

Any team or organization from Lancaster or York County is invited to enter the tourney with either a single team in one of the three age brackets, or a team in each of the age brackets (Teeners 13-15, Midgets 10-12, Pee-Wees 8-9).

Last years Tournament attracted thirty-three (33) teams from eighteen communities, with Hempfield taking the Teener championship, Red Lion the Midgets, and York Boys Club the Pee-Wees.

The tournament is a two-loss elimination event, and any team wishing to enter may do so by writing to Tournament Director, Donald L. Sholl, 332 Perry Street, Columbia, PA 17512 before deadline date of June 25th, indicating which age bracket in which they will participate.
