50th anniversary for the William Boyds

A surprise drop-in buffet was held June 20 in honor of Mr. and Mrs. William Boyd's 50th Wedding Anniversary at the Washington House, Conoy, Bainbridge. It was given by their children.

The Boyds were married June 16, 1926 by the late Rev. Harry Kilgore, in the parsonage of the Presbyterian Church, New Salem, Fayette County, PA. They have two children, David C., Maytown and Mrs. Keith Kresge, Lancaster. There are 3 grandchildren.

Mr. Boyd retired from New Cumberland Army Depot, after 25 years of service and now works part time in Bainbridge and enjoys gardening. Mrs. Boyd (Mariah) worked part time at the Post Office and for a number of years baked cakes for people over two counties.

Kenneth E. Brandt, Representative from the 98th District has aquired a Citation from the State honoring Mr. and Mrs. Boyd's 50 years of marriage.

Democrats elect Matoney district leader

Roger Dourte, Democratic County Chairman, announced that John E. Matoney was elected Donegal District Leader at the Democratic Reorganizational meeting last night at the Mount Joy American Legion. Dourte noted that Matoney has served on the County Executive Board since 1968 and has held county wide posts as Campaign Manager and Registration Chairman. He has also been a candidate for office and is experienced in County politics.

Matoney stated that his first priority will be to initiate such action as necessary to organize a Donegal Democratic Club. The first priorities will be to assist the District leader in filing all vacant committee posts, the organizing of programs for the Presidential Election 1976 and seeking qualified candidates for the local election to be held in 1977.
