Raelene Harbold to visit Pakistan for International 4-H exchange

Raelene Harbold, Elizabethtown, R.D.#4, has been selected to participate in the International 4-H Youth Exchange (IFYE). She will depart August 15 for Pakistan where she will live and work with farm families for four months, returning to Lancaster County just before Christmas.

Raelene is one of five PA youths to be chosen this year. She will travel to Pakistan with seven other people from around the country.

A 4-H'er for 10 years,

Raelene belonged to the 4-H Holstein Club and owned five dairy animals of her own. She was on the dairy cattle judging team which won the state contest and judged in the National Contest in Ohio. The PA team placed fifth and Raelene placed second nationally in giving oral reasons for her placings.

In 1973, Raelene was chosen Lancaster County's Dairy Princess and participated in the state contest, being named second runner-up and Miss Congeniality.

A 1972 graduate of Elizabethtown High School,

Raelene recently resigned her position as dental assistant to Dr. Werner Z. Fetter, where she had worked for four years. Raelene is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ray Harbold, Elizabethtown.

She is an advisor to the youth group at the Congregational Bible Church, Marietta and is currently teaching Bible School.

Raelene is spending as much time as possible learning about the people and customs of Pakistan, a country the size of California with 70 million people, 96% of whom are of the Muslim faith.
