Zion Lutheran plans 76-77 nursery school

The Zion Lutheran Church Nursery School, Route 441 and Colebrook Road, Marietta, is now accepting applications for the 1976-77 season. Classes for four-year-old children meet Tuesday, Wednesday, and Thursday mornings, beginning September 14th. The purpose of the school is to enable children to gain confidence in their own capabilities, apart from parental discipline, as they work and play sociably and gain experience in basic learning skills, preparatory to kindergarten. The teacher of the school is Mrs. Cheryl K. Ronan. Registration information may be obtained by telephoning the church office, 426-1884, or by writing the church, R.D.#1, Marietta.

Rancks to be feted at St. Mark's Church

Dr. Ezra H. Ranck and his wife, Dorothy, will be guests of honor at a reception for them in the Fellowship Hall of St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, on Sunday afternoon, July 18, 1976, from 4 to 6 p.m. Dr. Ranck has just retired from his official duties as pastor of the Milton Grove and Moyers U.M. Churches and as Associate in Ministry of St. Mark's Church—positions which he held for the past three years after the retirement from the East PA Conference.

church and community not only during the past three years but also during the 17 previous years (1938 to 1955) when Dr. Ranck served St. Mark's the first time as pastor. Members of the church and friends of the community are asked to drop by any time within the two hour period to express appreciation and to share in some refreshments.

The Pastor-Parish Relations Committee of St. Mark's Church is sponsoring the reception for the Rancks in appreciation for the faithful ministry to the Members of the church and friends of the community are asked to drop by any time within the two hour period to express appreciation and to share in some refreshments. The Rancks will continue to reside at the Harvest-view Apartments in Mount Joy in the immediate future. They hope to be able to enjoy some travel and to continue to share in the life and activities of the church. Dr. Ranck serves on a number of boards and agencies of the United Methodist Church.

New building planned at Kraybill

The Board of Trustees of Kraybill Mennonite School, Inc., in recent action decided to proceed with plans for a new elementary school building. Final decision to build culminated months of discussion and prayer in which the Lord's direction was sought. The new elementary building to be built adjacent to the present Junior High Building will have eight classrooms, a learning materials center, and administrative offices. The new facility will replace the present elementary structure which will eventually be converted into a combination auditorium and recreation center.

meet the growing interest in education of youth in a Christian environment. Anticipated enrollment in the school for the 1976-77 term is 225 in kindergarten through ninth grade. Working with the staff of eleven full time teachers and three part time teachers, principal Leon Good attempts to provide a good academic program with Biblical emphasis throughout. In keeping with the appreciation for acapella singing by many of its supporting churches, the school maintains a strong music program.

eight member Board of Trustees. With Richard Winey of Middletown as chairman, the board will depend on the supporting churches and patrons and interested individuals for repayment of the necessary loans.

Total cost of the building is expected to be about $241,500. Clayton Gerlach Inc., of Leola is general contractor and Norman Gerlach of Washington Boro is architect. Construction is under general supervision of a building committee of which Richard Winey of Middletown is chairman. It is expected that the new facility will be ready for occupancy prior to January 1, 1977. This recent move by the school to expand its facilities is a result of efforts to

Using the former Kraybill Mennonite Church for its first classrooms, the school has begun in 1949 and has been operating since mainly by members of the Mennonite and Brethren in Christ churches. However, the school has always welcomed students from homes of Christian parents of other denominations. The students attending the school in the recent term represented thirty-eight congregations and came distances as far as Harrisburg. The construction of the new building is a "faith" move on the part of the

Music at C & M Alliance Church

On Sunday, July 18, the HARVESTIME Musical Ministry from Lewistown, PA will appear at the Christian and Missionary Alliance Church, 153 East High Street, Elizabethtown. The Buddy Krepp Family will sing at the Sunday School and Morning Worship Service at 9:15 a.m. and 10:30 a.m. At the 7 p.m. evening worship service they will present a Musical Concert. All are welcome to attend.
