Commemorative plate awarded to Nick Agouridis by Mount Joy JCs

The Mount Joy Jaycees have presented their commemorative plate to Nick Agouridis.

The presentation was made in recognition of all the support which Nick has given to Jaycees, Florin and Friendship Fire Co's, and the Athletic Association.

In a written statement, the Jaycees said, "The Jaycees felt that the attitude which Nick displays towards the Community and its organizations, is the same which many other citizens of the county have shared over the passed 200 years and helped to make this country what it is today."

Jaycees design Bicentennial plate

The Mount Joy Jaycees in commemorating their 25th anniversary, have designed and put into limited productions a Bicentennial Mount Joy Plate.

The plate, which was designed by Jeff Brown, is decorated with a Three masted ship and the outline of the United States. The words "Mount Joy-one hundred twenty five years," are engraved on the rim.

The plate was made by the Wilton Brass Co. of Columbia-in their Mount Joy plant. It sells for $12.00 and can be ordered from Jeff Brown at Jack Horner Shoes or by calling 653-4395.

Due to limited production plates will be sold on a first come basis.

Plates can also be seen at Greer's, Koser's and Smith's Sporting Goods, and Tastee Freeze. Any ex-member of the Jaycees are asked to leave their current address when ordering.
