council noted they will write to the Control Board in favor of the petition.

The residents stated they had sent a copy of the petition to the State and expect to attend a hearing about it in the near future. No date has been set by the Control Board for the hearing as yet.

In other business council accepted the resignation of Lester Brenaman from the Borough Planning Commission. David B. Deck, 424 Columbia Avenue will serve the unexpired term on the commission. Brenaman has moved out of the borough and therefore cannot serve on the commission.

A discussion on the railroad bridges in the borough brought out the fact that the bridges owned by the state should be repaired by the state. The PennDot said they have no money to repair the Angle Street bridge, which has suffered damages from the heavy trucks now forced to use it because of the deplorable conditions of the other bridges in the borough. The borough has patched holes on the bridge out of courtesy to the residents of the borough.

What will be done about the bridges is yet to be seen. The borough feels the state should repair their own bridges without any expense to the borough. PennDot says it does not have money for the project. The bridges at Lumber and Comfort Alley will be closed. The fate of the others is yet to be decided.

The boro accepted terms and rates of a contract with Warner Cable TV. Rates will go from $5.75 to $6.50 for initial hookup and $1.50 to $2.00 for add-on. A.M.-F.M. will go from $1.50 to $2.00.

The contract stated only one request for rate changes per year will be allowed the Warner Cable TV.
