

Michael Kohler will be featured at recital

Michael Kohler, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. Richard Kohler, 35 East Main Street, Mount Joy, will be featured in an Organ/Vocal Recital on Saturday afternoon, July 24, 1976, at 4 p.m., in the Sanctuary of St. Mark's United Methodist Church. He is presently studying organ with Mr. Gerald Miller who is the organist of St. Mark's Church and he is a voice student of Mrs. Marilyn Miller who is choral director of the church. This fall he is enrolled as a Music Education Major at Lebanon Valley College, Annville, PA.

The concert consists of two organ selections: "Toccatina" by Pachelbel and "Nun Bitten Wir" by Buxtehude. The baritone selections include a variety of compositions, many of them art songs, by a wide range of composers. These are "Dedicated" by Robert Franz, "When the Roses Bloom" by Reichardt, "The Daffodils" by Elson, "If You Have Naught" by de Rothschild, "How Lovely Are Thy Dwellings" by Liddle, "The People That Walked in Darkness" from "The Messiah" by Haendel, "Thou Wilt Keep Him in Perfect Peace" by Speaks, "The Two Grenadiers" by Schumann, "If Ever I Would Leave You" from "Camelot" by Loewe and "I Got Plenty o' Nuttin'" from "Porgy and Bess" by Gershwin.

The concert will be informal and is open to the public without charge. Light refreshments will be served and a time of fellowship will follow.

Marietta playground activities last week

During the first two weeks 126 children have registered to participate in Marietta playground activities.

Besides the regular activities each week, arts and crafts and special events are provided for all age groups. Swimming lessons will be held during the last two weeks of July. Parents are reminded that each Monday morning a permission slip and 30c is needed in order to attend the free swim Monday afternoon.

Listed below are the winners of the art contest which took place last week:

First place - Russ Flowers, Jill Kyler, Vincent Mauss, Regina Martin.

Second Place - Pam Waltman, Greg Martin, Tammy Flowers, Celeste Wansley, Richie Nornhold.

Third Place - Debbie Gano, Mark Harris, Tina Martin, Sherry Noll, Lisa Nein.

Beginners who did an outstanding job making objects out of strips of colored paper include:

First place - Butch Kennedy, Jimmy Squibbs.

Second Place - Todd Kibler, Stacey Nein, Vincent Mauss.

Third Place - Tim Hoffmaster, Angie Roberts.

George Arnold was declared champion of the Chinese checker tournament. George was undefeated but was given a good run by Greg Martin who finished second, Tammy Flowers who finished third and Dave Deitrick who finished in 4th place.
