Young love got a seat on train in 1874

Jack W. W. Loose, Donegal High School teacher and President of the Lancaster County Historical Society, has provided the Susquehanna Times with the following item from the Columbia Spy of Dec. 12, 1874.

Pretty Good—On Thursday morning a nice young man from Columbia, who is noted for his remarkable fondness of the race course, as well as love for the fair sex, got into the Lancaster train for a long and tiresome ride to Philadelphia.

He saw to his delight the only vacant seat in the coach was by the side of a young lady acquaintance. He reached for that seat with joyous strides, and her eyes answered his delighted looks. But just as he got there, an elderly party from the other end of the car waltzed up the aisle and dropped into the coveted seat

The young man approached more slowly and accosted the young lady.

"How is your brother?" he asked. "Is he able to get out?" "Oh, yes," she said. "Will he be very badly marked?" he continued; and the old gentleman grew suddenly interested. "Oh, no," said the fair deceiver, "with the exception of a few small pits on his forehead, you would never know he had ever had it."

"Were you not afraid of taking it?" the young man went on, while the old gentleman broke out in cold perspiration. "not at all," she replied; "I had been vaccinated, you know"

The seat was vacated instantly, two young hearts beat as half a dozen, and the prattle of "nice talk" strewed that part of the car, while a gray-haired old man scowled upon them from the hard accommodation of the coal box.
