

Photo shows the winners and their pets at last week's pet show: From left to right in the back row are: Julie Splain with the cutest pets (Chicks); April Yohe with the smallest pet (Frogs); Susan Kauffman with the most colorful pet (George and Martha Washington); Rosemary Kennedy with the sneakiest cat (Patches); Grace Henderson with the most curious cat (Catreco); Kathy Penwell with the most patient dog (Andre); Angie

Roberts with the best pet in the show (Ricky); Dave Deitrick and George Arnold with the best pair (Jacky and Tippy). Front row from left to right are: Frankie Smith, Don Stoppard and Larry Stoppard with the biggest dog (Lucky); Pearl Rapp with the most active dog (Jake); Michele McKinney with the most loveable dog (Brandy) and Becky Bensinger and Ricky Bensinger with the best trained pet (Nikki)

Lots of winners in Marietta Playg round pet show

Becky Bensinger with best trained dog in the show.

Fifty-eight children participated in the swimming lessons sponsored at the Marietta playground during the last two weeks by the Mount Joy Lion's Club and aids who assisted with the lessons.

Winners of the doll show were: Tallest, Grace Henderson; cutest, 1st-Mary Lavin, 2nd-Kay Bailey, 3rd-Rosemary Kennedy; prettiest, Pearl Rapp, 2nd-Ann Splain, 3rd-Mary Brown; most lovable, 1st-Angie Roberts, 2nd-Debbie Null; most unusual, 1st-Michele Lavin, 2nd-Debbie Rettew; best equipped, Vincent Mauss; funniest, Terri Meszaros; best collection, Grace Henderson.

The following people were winners in the knick-hockey tournament: Beginners, 1st-Teresa Lavin, 2nd-Regina Martin, 3rd-Ricky Squibbs; Intermediates, 1st-Tim Santiago, 2nd-Mark Harris, 3rd-Dean Harnish; Seniors, 1st-Steve Meszaros, 2nd-Dick Oberholzer, 3rd-JoAnne Null.

Winners of the hobby show were: most decorative-Teresa Lavin; cutest collection-Deb Rettew; most unusual, rock collection by Jay Wansley; best constructed model-Russ Flowers; prettiest collection-Grace Henderson; most intellectual-Pearl Rapp; best organized, Sport collection by Tommy Flowers; most entertaining-Tom Flowers.

Highlighting last week's activities was the pet show with these winners: Julie Splain, cutest; April Yohe, most unusual; Susan Kauffman, most colorful; Rosemary Kennedy, sneakiest cat; Grace Henderson, most active cat; Cathy Penwell, most patient dog; Angie Roberts-best of show; Dave Deitrick and George Arnold, best pair; Frank Smith, Don Stoppard, Larry Stoppard, biggest dog; Pearl Rapp, most active dog; Michele McKinney, most lovable; Becky Bensinger, Ricky Bensinger, best trained dog.

Nicki and Michele McKinney with the most loveable dog in the show.