

Donegal teachers charge unfair labor practice by school board

The Donegal Education Association (DEA) has filed an unfair labor practice charge against the Donegal School Board with the PA Labor Relations Board, Donegal superintendent Ragner F. Hallgren reported last night.

The DEA charges that at the bargaining table it has been denied information relative to the insurance premiums paid by the district for bargaining unit members.

A PLRB hearing was scheduled for September 16 at 10:30 a.m. in the Lancaster County Courthouse.

In other business, the school board referred to committee a request from the Donegal booster club that the boosters be allowed to erect lights on the high school football field.

Edgar Jones, speaking for the boosters, said that along with the erection of lights would go the building of larger and better bleachers on the visiting team side of the football field.

He pointed out that the lights could also be used by the Donegal baseball team for night contests. Jones noted that by using volunteer help, the total cost of installation could be cut down.

Donegal football coach, Gayne Deshler, speaking in behalf of the booster club said, "The lights would add interest to the football program. And the kids just enjoy playing under the lights."

Dr. William Landis, school board president, referred the request to the public relations and extra-curricular committee headed by Dr. Harold Fellenbaum.

In the other action, the resignation of Roxanne Eisenhower, secretary in the W.I. Beahm Junior High School was accepted by the board. Mrs. Eisenhower had been on maternity leave since Christmas.

The board also accepted the resignations of two teachers: Mrs. Karen G. Kegel, third grade teacher at Maytown elementary and Barbara A. Balas, librarian at Riverview and Maytown elementary schools.

The resignation of Mr. Jonas J. Byler, former high school custodian was also accepted.

Four new teachers were hired by the board.

Susan F. Zorich, Kittanning R5, was hired to teach high school English at the district's starting salary.

Joseph P. King, Phelps, NY will teach junior high school science, also at the district's starting salary.

Stephen P. McCartney, Lancaster, will teach high school English for the 1976-77 year, taking the place of a teacher granted maternity leave. He will be paid on a full-time substitute basis.

Also paid on a full-time substitute basis will be JoAnn Johnson, Hanover. She will teach junior high school mathematics for the 1976-77 school year.

A contract for 10 typewriters was awarded to Engle Business Equipment, Inc., Elizabethtown, at a total cost to the board of $1,760.

The board agreed to lease three classrooms at Riverview elementary to Intermediate Unit 13 at a cost of $1,500 each for 1976-77.
