HIS AMBASSADORS

His Ambassadors, a gospel singing group from Florida Bible College, will present a concert in testimony and song at Congregational Bible Church, Marietta, on Tuesday evening, September 7th at 7:30 p.m. After two years of performing in college concerts, their love for Christ and His message of salvation caused the group to start a full time ministry in music.

After extensive travel throughout the U.S. and Canada, the group plans to broaden their outreach to Europe—truly fulfilling their Christian commission to be His Ambassadors. A love offering will be taken to help meet the group's traveling expenses. Come and bring along a friend for an enjoyable evening of praise in gospel music.

ST. MARK'S

A full program of activities resumes at St. Mark's United Methodist Church, Mount Joy, after Labor Day.

The Sunday Worship will feature a sermon series by the pastor, W. Richard Kohler, on the churches described in the Book of Revelation. The series is entitled, "Looking at Our Church through the Windows of the New Testament Churches."

Sunday Church School for all ages continues at 9 a.m. with a class to suit the interest of everyone.

New to the church's program this fall is a "family night" program each Wednesday. Youth will have two hours of Bible study and activities beginning at 6:30. Two choirs will rehearse during that time; Cherubs at 7 p.m. and Wesley Singers at 7:30 p.m.

During September and over into October, the people of St. Mark's Church will join with the people of the Mount Joy Church of God for joint Wed. evening Prayer Services in preparation for a combined week of Evangelistic Services, October 17 through 22, 1976.

Two Sunday evening programs will be held at St. Mark's during September. On the 12th there will be a "Who's Who" Program at which new members received during 1975 and 1976 will be honored by the congregation. On the 26th there will be an Open House Visitation of the Church School classes for Christian Education Sunday.

The Celestial Choir and the Chancel Choir begin rehearsals on Thursday evening, September 16th, at 7 p.m. and 8 p.m. respectively.

A retreat for church officers is scheduled for Saturday, September 17th, all day at the residence of John and Miriam Hershey, Mount Joy, R.D. #2.
