

Fire and rescue units in mock drill

Fourteen local fire companies, rescue units and ambulance squads participated in a mock disaster drill Sunday afternoon.

A total of 150 rescue workers responded to mock "multi-vehicle accidents" and an "explosion and fire" at Wenger Feed Mill.

E-town, Rheems, Mount Joy, Florin, Bainbridge, Mount Joy Township and Maytown were among the participants.

Patricia Moran, chairman of the Heritage Committee of the Mount Joy Bicentennial Commission, presents a Pictorial Souvenir Book of Mount Joy to Mayor James Gingrich and Bernell Heisey, President of the Mount Joy Area Historical Society. The books are being sold by the Bicentennial Commission for $6.00. For orders call 653-4657 or 653-1656. Limited edition.
