Winners named in the Mount Joy men's & women's tennis tourney

The third Annual Men's and Women's Doubles tennis tournament was held on a beautiful Labor Day weekend in Mount Joy.

For the third year in a row the smashing team of Bill Houseal, Jr. and Dave Schlosser won the men's doubles title. They became the champions by defeating the father and son team of Gerald and Drew Hostetter in the finals, 3-6; 6-2; and 6-0. The rest of their matches were taken in straight sets. They defeated Bill Roberts and Jack Brenneman in the semi-finals with their hard-driving, well-placed shots 6-4, 6-3. Their tremendous volley game helped them defeat two excellent tennis players, Dr. Harold Fellenbaum and Frank Zink 6-3, 6-3. During the first round they defeated two youngsters from Elizabethtown 6-1, 6-1.

The defending champions from last year won the women's title in two hour, three set dual. Marianne Coover and Linda Hershey defeated Kitty Etsell and Sharon Grissinger 6-7, 6-2, and 6-3. Etsell and Grissinger won the first set by rushing the net and putting the ball out of play. The consistency of ground-strokes and the well-placed lobs of Hershey and Coover was enough to break down Etsell and Grissinger's net game in the last two sets. Coover and Hershey defeated Peg Elliot and Donna Bowersox of Columbia 6-1, 7-6 in the semi-finals. During the first round of play they defeated the East Petersburg champions Pat Lewicki and Charlotte Shaub 6-0, 6-3.

Congratulations from the Mount Joy Tennis Club and the spectators to both the men's and women's champions for defending their titles. These four champions and all the participants made the matches enjoyable for everyone to watch with their great sportsmanship and excellent playing.
