Marietta Aux. holds luncheon

The 75th anniversary since the organization of the Marietta Auxiliary to the Columbia Hospital was observed with a special luncheon at Mr. Lacy's Lounge on Monday. Living past presidents were honored and two life memberships were awarded.

The program, arranged by the executive committee included a skit about Auxiliary activities beginning in 1901 and continuing in the present year.

Life memberships were awarded to Miss Elizabeth Miley and Mrs. Harry Zuch, who served as treasurer of the group for many years.

Living past presidents were recognized as they gathered around the home-made anniversary cake, baked by Mrs. Robert Henry, a member of the auxiliary. Past presidents attending the event were Mrs. J. Edward Charles, Mrs. Robert Lombard, Mrs. Joseph Carroll, Mrs. Robert Carroll, Mrs. James Baker, Miss Elsie McCloskey and the current officer in charge, Mrs. Joseph Gilmartin.

Current officers, were also honored, including: Mrs. Joseph Carroll, vice-president; Mrs. Ralph Miller, secretary; Mrs. George Houscal, treasurer; Mrs. William Heisey, chaplain; Mrs. Robert Carroll, program director; and Mrs.
